

FOR EVERYTHING THERE IS A season,
AND A TIME FOR EVERY PURPOSE UNDER HEAVEN:

A TIME TO BE BORN,

AND A TIME TO DIE;

A TIME TO PLANT,

A TIME TO PLUCK UP THAT WHICH IS PLANTED;

A TIME TO KILL,

AND A TIME TO HEAL; A TIME TO BREAK DOWN,

AND A TIME TO BUILD UP,

a time to weep

AND A TIME TO LAUGH;

A TIME TO MOURN, AND A TIME TO DANCE;

A TIME TO CAST AWAY STONES,

A TIME TO GATHER STONES TOGETHER;

A TIME TO embrace

AND A TIME TO REFRAIN FROM EMBRACING;

A TIME TO SEEK, AND A TIME TO LOSE;

A TIME TO KEEP, AND A TIME TO CAST AWAY;

A TIME TO MEND, AND A TIME TO SEW;

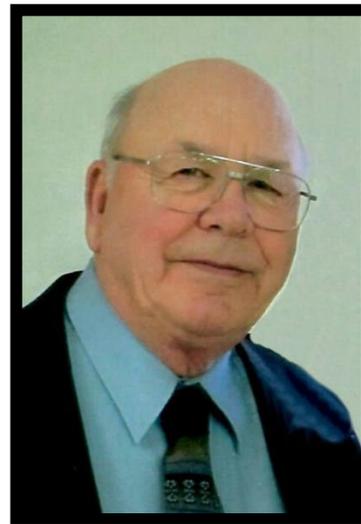

A TIME TO KEEP SILENCE, AND A TIME TO SPEAK;

A TIME TO LOVE, AND TIME TO HATE;

A TIME FOR WAR, AND TIME FOR

peace

Wallace “Wally” Berg Horning was born April 20, 1933 in Graceville, Minnesota the son of Orville and Lillian (Berg) Horning. He was raised on the family farm 10 miles northwest of Chokio. He was baptized July 2, 1933 and later confirmed at Trinity Lutheran Church north of Johnson. He attended Chokio High School graduating with the class of 1951.

Wally met a beautiful 16-year-old high school girl, Peggy Blakesley, while roller skating at Perkins. The couple married on April 10, 1953 at Trinity Lutheran Church. They operated a dairy farm from 1954 – 1965 and then moved to a farm in Eldorado Township where they lived until July, 2024 when they moved to Legacy Assisted Living in Morris.

Wally was always a farmer at heart and his children meant the world to him. His mischievous smile and the twinkle in his eyes conveyed his love for family and his many friends. He also enjoyed fishing and hunting (many elk hunting trips, but he never got one). He served on the Herman School Board and various council positions at Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Herman. He enjoyed attending the many sporting events of his children, loved to “tinker” and fix anything and everything, and especially enjoyed the annual Minnesota Twin game with the Martins in the Red Owl Van.

Wallace Horning died Saturday, March 15, 2025, at his home at Legacy Assisted Living in Morris, surrounded by his loving family. He was 91 years old.
