REFLECTIONS OF HER LIFE

Ms. Dora Mae Davis was born on June 6, 1945, in Hopkins (Congaree), South Carolina, to the late Robert Davis, Sr. and Ella Nixon Davis. She peacefully entered eternal rest at her home on September 13, 2026.

Dora Mae received her education in the Richland County Public School System and was a proud graduate of Hopkins High School. She was a faithful member of Zion Benevolent Baptist Church until her health declined. She also enjoyed fellowship with the Golden Girls, which brought her much joy. Dora Mae dedicated 25 years of service to William Jennings Bryan Dorn Veterans Affairs Medical Center. She later worked in Food Service at Manor Care for many years. In addition, she lovingly helped raise and nurture two generations of children alongside Nancy Sinclair Swindler, leaving a lasting impact on their lives.

In her leisure time, Dora Mae enjoyed shopping, listening to the blues, dancing, and taking leisurely drives around town. One of her greatest joys was spending time at the beach, where she found peace, comfort, and happiness. Known for her quiet spirit, loving heart, and generous nature, Dora Mae never hesitated to lend a helping hand. She was the kind of person who would willingly give her last to someone in need, exemplifying compassion and selflessness throughout her life. She was preceded in death by her parents, Robert Davis, Sr. and Ella Nixon Davis; her brother, Larry Davis; and her sisters, Chanie Davis, Emma Jackson, and Susie Mae Hiller.

Cherishing her memory and mourning her passing are her brothers, Joseph Davis, Freddie Davis, and Robert (Ivy) Davis; her sisters, Ethel Davis, who faithfully and lovingly served as her devoted caregiver, Mamie Goodwin, Janie Lee, Annie Staten and Betty Portee She shared a special bond with all of her nieces and nephews. Among those especially dear to her heart are her nieces, Wilma Sumter and Trina Pringle, and her nephew, Greg Davis, and her goddaughter, Stephanie Simuel; and a host of loving relatives and dear friends who will forever cherish her memory and miss her deeply.

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

She never needed many words

To show the love she had to give.

Her kindness spoke in gentle ways,

In every life she helped us live.

She had a sweet and loving heart,

A kindness that will never fade.

The warmth she shared with those she loved

Will always be the memories made.

Though we can no longer see her face

Or hear her softly speak,

Her love will live within our hears

When we are strong and when we’re weak.

Rest peacefully, Auntie,

Your love will be our guide.

You may be gone from our sight,

But never from our hearts inside.
