Obituary

On Saturday, December 5, 2020, Curtis James affectionately known as "Curt-Curt", a loving father of four children walked into the arms of the Lord at the age of 43. Curtis gave his life to Christ at ion Baptist Church where he attended all during his youth.

Curtis was born on July 23, 1977, in Cincinnati, Ohio to Ronnie Wilbon and Jeanette James (Garrett). Curtis attended Woodward High School. He was a hard-working man.

Curtis loved sports, especially football. He was an avid Cincinnati Bengals fan and attended a lot of games. Curtis loved to travel whenever he got a chance. He was a silly guy with a heart of gold who was willing to help anyone. Curtis found humor no matter what the situation was. Curtis loved his video games, he would play sun up until sundown.

Curtis was an amazing father to his children. One thing for sure, he loved all of his family. He will be forever remembered as a devoted son, brother, loving and loyal father, friend, with a generous spirit.

Curtis was preceded in death by his grandmothers: Zeola Wilbon and Thelma James; grandfathers: Fred Givens and Clifton James.

Curtis leaves to cherish his memory father Ronnie Wilbon; mother Thelma James (Garrett); daughters: Aireana James and Kur'Shyrah James; sons: Curtis James, Jr. and Raymaron James; brothers: Andre James, Ronnell Dodds, Michael James, Lamar Dodds, Jovan James, Ronnie Dodds, Dante James, Isaiah Wilbon, and Verland Barton; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, and friends who loved him dearly.
