April 29, 2025

Judy was born October 2, 1943, in Langdon, ND, to Frank and Ruby (Coyle) Gellner. She attended country school and St. Alphonsus in Langdon. On June 23, 1962, she married Lorne Tetrault at St. Alphonsus Catholic Church in Langdon. Judy & Lorne owned and operated the Bread Pan Bakery, and then she was the manager at Highway Laundry for her brother, Kenny, for many years before retiring.

Judy was a Minnesota Vikings fan and an avid Cardinal sports follower and supporter. Because she attended so many events, she became grandmother to many. You could always count on seeing Judy in the stands cheering for the participants. Judy also loved to visit and spend time with her friends and family. Her faith was very important to her. She was a member of St. Alphonsus Church and altar society.
