Da' Maurion DUNHAM

Da'Maurion Jarien Dunham, a cherished son, brother, and friend, passed away on November 9, 2025, in Houston, Texas at the tender age of 17. Born on January 12, 2008, in Houston, he brought light into the lives of those around him from the very beginning. Da'Maurion is remembered for his loving spirit, strong sense of loyalty, and an innate desire to protect his family and friends.

He attended C.E. King High School, where he formed lasting friendships and left a positive mark on the community. Da'Maurion was known for his vibrant personality and his dedication to those he cared about. He often felt an urge to stand as a protector, always looking out for others and ensuring they felt valued and safe.

Da'Maurion is survived by his loving mother, LaToya Sanders (Kerri Bailey) and his father, Brian Dunham. He treasured his relationships with his siblings, Ka'Leil Young, Teaonna Dunham, and Koya Bailey, as well as his beloved son, Zyion Lawrence.

His legacy continues through his grandparents, Shirley Young, Herman Young, Carolyn Mason, Leonard Mason, and Byron Dunham, who instilled values of love and resilience in him. He also leaves behind three aunts and eight uncles who will carry forward his memory.

As we reflect on the life of Da'Maurion Dunham, we celebrate a young man whose spirit touched many. He will be dearly missed by friends from Forest Brook and C.E. King High School, all of whom were fortunate to know him. Da'Maurion's love and warmth will always be remembered in the hearts of those who loved him deeply.

Family TRIBUTES

To My Son

Something Will remind me I never now just when It might be something someone says and ital comes back again.

The times wespent. togetner. The happines and fun. Once again feel the pain of life Without my only son.

It's said that times a healer but I'm nut sure this is true,
There's not a day goes by son that I dont miss or cry for you. Mom

I'm always thanking God for sending me an angel as a first born.
I knew I had to focus on a new path for the betterment of you.

Im proud of you son, and I know your at peace and you happy.
God has you in his arms, I love you dude, Dad!

I miss the comfort and closeness you shared, the hugs, laugher, even the arguments and tears, rest up D, love
nanna

To my one and only little brother, I always wanted what was best for you, and for you to find something you love and would go crazy about. I see you every time I close my eyes, and your the first thing on my mind when I wake up, you'll never be forgotten, you left behind sisters and your son, and momma, till we see you again baby brother, your sister Ka'Leil

AKNOWLEDGMENTS

The Family would like to take this opportunity to extend our heartfelt thanks and gratitude to the host of friends for all of the kind and thoughtful deeds rendered during our time of bereavement. Whatever part you played, it was not unnoticed. Your kind and generous expressions of love, the many phone calls, visits and most of all, your prayers have been our strength and comfort during this time. May God bless and keep each and every one of you.
