

Tribute of Thanks

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or just quietly sat in chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our heart, we thank you so much,
whatever the part.

Obituary

A Time to Be Born

Brenda Lea Hope was born September 1, 1964, to the late Wille Eugene Hope and Eddie Mae Hope in Cincinnati, Ohio. Brenda was the eighth child born to this union. Four siblings preceded her in death, Annette (Moses-deceased) Brumfield, Cornell (Ernestine) Hope, Bertha Hope, Irma (Amos) Ashley.

A Time to Die

On Thursday, December 26, 2024, Brenda departed this life.

A Time to Remember.

Brenda lived her early childhood life in Cincinnati, Ohio, for her secondary education she migrated to Lynwood California where she graduated from Lynwood High School of Orange County Independent School District. Brenda was employed by The Los Angeles Department of Transportation - Independent School District. She enjoyed her profession as a transporter and had a deep love for the children she transported. She later returned to Cincinnati, Ohio and lived among family and friends until her transition.

A Time to Embrace

Brenda, why did you have to leave us so soon?
The love we feel for you outshines the moon.
Your laugh, Your smile, we will surely miss.
We seal this note of our love with a kiss.

To a loving Sister, Aunt, Cousin, Friend, From your Family

She leaves to cherish her memories, one sister Ella (Isaac (deceased) Hope-Nelson, (Savannah, GA Darnell Hope, (Rialto, California), Timothy (Melissa) Hope (Cincinnati, Ohio) two aunts, Johnnie Thompkins, Atlean Sims, and one very special niece Samantha Hope (Columbus, Ohio) and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
