

*Your Guiding Light Lives On
For Aunt Lynn
A Tribute from Ashley*

Aunt Lynn, your love shaped who I am
A guiding light, a steady hand
You taught me how a woman grows
With fire, with grace, with strength that shows
You weren't just family, you were my friend
A mentor, boss, and gentle blend
Of hustle, heart, and wisdom deep
The kind of love a soul can keep
We built our bond in quiet ways
Those store runs, books, and library days
You showed me how to dream out loud
To walk like I belong, stand proud
You gave me tools to build my name
To chase success and stake my claim
Because of you, I know my worth
You lit that fire before my birth
I'll carry every word you said
Each lesson softly in my head
You live in me, in what I do
A boss lady, because of you
Though I can't call or see your face
I feel your love in every space
Your spirit walks beside me still
With quiet strength and iron will
So rest now, Auntie, job well done
Your legacy shines like the sun
Forever missed but never gone
In me, your light will carry on

Obituary

Linda Daniel was born on December 21, 1959, to the late Loma and Jesse James Daniel. She was one of ten siblings and was preceded in death by her parents, along with her brothers, Jesse Jr., Larry, Calvin, and Anthony.

At an early age, Linda accepted Christ and began her walk of faith. She was a proud graduate of Walnut Hills High School, where she excelled academically and graduated with honors. Linda had a successful career in retail sales at Elder Beerman Department Store and later worked in the banking industry, retiring from PNC Bank.

Linda was known for her kind heart and generous spirit. She had a gift for connecting with people and got along with everyone she met. She deeply loved her family and friends and cherished the time spent with them.

A lifelong learner and avid reader, Linda enjoyed frequent visits to the library. She also found joy in crocheting, shopping, traveling, and dining out. She loved playing cards, visiting casinos, and relaxing with a good movie or TV show. Linda had a gentle, calm presence and was always a pleasant person to be around.

She leaves behind a legacy of love and cherished memories with her siblings: Harry Daniel (Quinesta), Michael Daniel, Gloria Daniel, and Barry Daniel (Edwina), all of Cincinnati, Ohio; and Rosemary Carter of Jacksonville, Florida. She is also survived by her sister-in-law Sharlene Daniel of South Carolina; and a host of nieces, nephews, extended family, and friends who will miss her dearly.
