

Gone Riding

Don't cry for me, I still ride free,

With the wind upon my face,

Leather in black, the sun on my back,

A priceless gift of God's grace.

I'll never grow old, on these streets of gold,

Chasing a majestic sunset,

And I still recall, how I love you all,

Sweet memories I won't forget.

And when your road ends, we'll meet again,

Inside the Pearly Gates,

And we'll laugh awhile and go ride for miles,

But for now, Heaven can wait.

When you do get here, don't shed one tear,

And think I'm in hiding,

Just search Heaven's shore, where the engines roar,

And you'll find that I've gone riding.

~David Ritter

Stephen Allen Scott

Stephen Allen Scott, 59, of Sedalia, MO, passed away at his home on Friday, April 25, 2025. He was born on July 22, 1965, in Sedalia, the son of Clyde Marion Scott and Marian Jean (Stephens) Scott, who preceded him in death.

Stephen was a proud graduate of the Smith-Cotton High School Class of 1984. He lettered in music and was a member of the marching band, serving as the first chair trumpet in the concert band. Stephen worked for the Pettis County Fire Department, where he held the rank of Captain. Additionally, he served as an EMT for the Pettis County Fire District.

As a professional, Stephen made a living as an automotive mechanic and also worked as a salesperson at Firestone in Sedalia. His greatest joy came from riding his motorcycle around the beautiful countryside of Central Missouri. He cherished spending time with his motorcycle friends at events and poker runs.

Survivors include two sons, Richard and Justin Scott; three bonus sons, Keyshawn Williams, Christopher, and Jamie Barnett; a sister, JoAnn Greer (David Mosley) of Sedalia; his companion, Lillie Monteer of the home; niece, Robin Wagenknecht; nephew, Scott Greer; many great-nieces and nephews.

In addition to his parents, Stephen was preceded in death by a brother, Robert Scott.
