ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The family of Branden extends our heartfelt gratitude for the many prayers and expressions of love shown during this time. Your kindness has been a source of comfort and strength that we are eternally grateful for. Our heartfelt thanks to Walker Funeral Home, New Friendship Baptist Church, Black Ice Arts Academy, and Charles Early for handling our needs. Though our hearts are heavy, we find peace in knowing that God's promises are true — that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord.

OBITUARY

Branden Denzel Shaw, 31, of Cincinnati, Ohio, entered into rest on January 26, 2026. Though his time on earth was brief, the impact of his life and his love remain with us always.

Born on February 7, 1994, to DeJuan Shaw Sr. and Roxanne Bradley-Shaw, Branden was a devoted father, beloved son, loving brother, caring nephew and cousin, and a loyal friend. He accepted Christ at an early age, and his faith remained an important part of his life. In his youth, he participated in church as a stepper, using his gifts to uplift and engage in fellowship within his church community.

His strength, caring spirit, and love were evident in every chapter of his life. Branden loved football and later found purpose in mentoring young athletes as a coach with the Cincinnati Raiders. He will be remembered for his infectious smile— one that could light up a room and the deep love he had for his children.

Branden was preceded in death by his father, DeJuan Shaw Sr.; his paternal grandparents, John and Mae Shaw; and his Papa, Reginald Johnson.

He is survived by his mother, Roxanne Bradley-Shaw; grandparents Corline Johnson and Jerral (Yvonne) Bradley Sr.; his children Brayden, Brooklyn, and Kyila; an extended daughter Janiya; siblings DeJuan Jr., Eboni, Donquez, Shanice, and Alexis; his special companion, Love Jones; and a host of family members and friends who will forever cherish his memory.

LOVED BEYOND MEASURE

As you hold this with a hurting heart,
Please be gentle with yourself.
The ache you carry is our love,
Still held in memory, quietly felt.

Because of you, I did not go without love.
Love that is patient, even now.
Love that is kind, even in grief.
It does not fade or fail somehow;
It endures,
Long after words fall short of belief.

My babies—my greatest joy, my deepest pride—
Though I am in heaven,
My love for you will never change.
I watch you everyday
I hear you when you're laughing
And watch you as you sleep
I even place my arms around you
To calm you while you weep
Heaven is beautiful—
Just you wait and see.
Until then, live fully, laugh again,
Enjoy your life, and be free.
I love you.

To you all,
Thank you for loving me so well.
For every prayer, each kindness shown.

When your heart grows weary, remember God's words are true:
"Those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength.
They will soar on wings like eagles;
They will run and not grow weary,
They will walk and not be faint."

As hope lifts your hearts and carries you on,
May that promise lead you forward,
Just as your love carried me—here and now home.
