I'M FREE

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free;
I'm following the path GOD laid for me...*

I took His hand when I heard Him call;

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day

to laugh, to love to work or play.

I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void

Then fill it with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss.

And yes, these, I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow.

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much-

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me.

God wanted me now,

He has set me free.

OBITUARY

Lee Thomas Redfearn was born in Chesterfield County, South Carolina on July 6, 1946 to the late Johnny Thomas Redfearn and Corine Fields Redfearn. Lee Thomas Redfearn Sr departed his life on Monday, December 1, 2025 at the age of 79.

The family moved to Charlotte, NC in 1953. Lee attended school in the Charlotte Mecklenburg system at an early age. He was a graduate of West Charlotte High School in 1965. He joined the military branch of the Army in 1965. In 1968, he joined in marriage with Lou Dorothy Scott, where they had three children. He later began employment at Weyerhaeuser in 1970 and retired in 2009.

Lee joined Shiloh Institutional Baptist at an early age, and later became a Boyscout leader. Lee later became a member of Mt Vernon Missionary Baptist Church in 1989, where he was a member until his death. He was a handyman and very resourceful. You could find Lee at the local library studying on how to build or fix anything. Lee loved helping others. He went above and beyond to help others. Lee was a honorable, quiet and reserved man. Lee was well respected amongst family, friends, coworkers.

Lee was preceded in death by his parents, Johnny and Corine Redfearn. He is survived by his wife of the home, Lou Dorothy Redfearn, one Daughter, Regina Redfearn Downs, and two sons Lee Thomas Jr (Rhonda), Patrick (Sommer); five sisters Grace Blakeney, Johnnie Kearns, Cora Hardy, Laura Desrosiers and Angela (James) Laster; two brothers Javis Redfearn and Willie Charles Redfearn. Lee is also survived by 7 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
