

THE LIFE & LEGACY OF Carolyn Grace Robinson

“Tested by life, strengthened by faith, and carried by God.”

Carolyn Grace Robinson was born on February 18, 1969, in Lee County, South Carolina, to Carnell and Grace Robinson. She peacefully transitioned from this life on April 29, 2026. Carolyn attended the public schools of Lee County, South Carolina, and graduated from Bishopville High School. In 1987, she relocated to Meriden, Connecticut, where she was employed by Unimax Switch Corporation as a production line technician. She later moved to Durham, North Carolina, where she became a Certified Nursing Assistant.

In 1995, Carolyn was blessed with her beloved son, Jamal Edwards. She returned to South Carolina in 2000. In 2017, she joyfully became a grandmother to Kyleigh Ray Edwards, whom she adored deeply. Carolyn had a strong faith and found joy in serving the Lord, gardening, scrapbooking, and baking cakes.

Those left to cherish her memory and carry on her legacy include her son, Jamal Edwards of Bishopville, South Carolina; one granddaughter, Kyleigh Ray Edwards of Dalzell, South Carolina; her parents, Carnell and Grace Robinson of Lamar, South Carolina; her sister, Rochelle (Christopher) Morris of Bishopville, South Carolina; two brothers, Tyrone (Pamela) Robinson of Lydia, South Carolina and Tony (DarNita) Robinson of Sumter, South Carolina, along with a host of other loving family and friends.

Carolyn was preceded in death by her sibling, Michelle Robinson.

To My Mom

You can only have one mother
Patient kind and true;
No other friend in all the world,
Will be the same to you.
When other friends forsake you,
To mother you will return,
For all her loving kindness,
She asks nothing in return.
As I look upon her picture,
Sweet memories I recall,
Of a face so full of sunshine,
And a smile for one and all.
Sweet Jesus, take this message,
To my dear mother up above;
Tell her how I miss her,
And give her all my love.

-Jamal
