

Noel Kallevig

1953 – 2025

*God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So he put His arms around you
And whispered "Come to me."*

*With tearful eyes we watched you
As you slowly slipped away
And though we loved you dearly
We couldn't make you stay.*

*Your golden heart stopped beating
Your tired hands put to rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.*

Noel Kallevig, passed away Monday, November 10, 2025, at a Bismarck Hospital after a brief fight with cancer, with his daughter by his side.

Noel was born December 15, 1953, in Sidney, Montana, to Clifford and Vivian (Strobeck) Kallevig. He was affectionately known to his siblings as "Bimbo." He was raised and educated in Sidney and graduated from Sidney High School.

After graduation, Noel worked a variety of jobs across Montana, Washington, Wyoming, and North Dakota. He did a bit of everything: oilfield work, painting houses (his favorite trade), driving tow trucks, and caring for residents in group homes.

In June of 1981, he married Denise Johnson, and together they welcomed their daughter, Shannon. Noel became a stepdad to Jeff, Ronette, and Michelle, too. The couple later divorced. In 1988, he married Jo Harvey and together they had two daughters, Alyssa and Kama, and gained a step-son in Jo's son, Zach.

Noel was a North Dakota lottery faithful - winning the 2x2 not once, but four times. He enjoyed playing online poker as well as trying to become a pool "shark" the last couple of years and was a member of Pool League. He was a fan of the WWE, history/news, football, AC/DC, and his daughter, Shannon's, dart team, who he cheered for on league night. He was also a great cook and loved to have Thanksgiving feasts and bbq/cookouts. In more recent years, as Noel got older, he let his daughter, Shannon, do the cooking and he loved to enjoy all her meals!

In April of 2019, Noel had a critical health scare and hung up his drinking days for a few years, but not his social life. He still made the rounds at local bars, greeting the regulars and probably flirting just enough to stay in practice. Noel had a good sense of humor that could lighten any room.

He is survived by his daughters, Shannon (Chandler LaRock) Dunn, Kama (Alex) Kelley, and Alyssa (Chris) Johnson; grandchildren, Malachai, Kyarra (Caleb), Keltic (Karrah), Dymetria, Zayden, Kaylee, and Kalley; great-grandkids, Ezra and Azyah; sister, Julie; and brother, Jerome.

Noel was preceded in death by his parents, Clifford and Vivian; brothers Kendal and Randall; step-son, Zach; and his beloved Doberman, Cannabis.

Noel's family invites everyone to remember him with a smile, a story, and maybe a lottery ticket (you never know!).
