THE LIFE STORY OF BRENDA Burton-Poole MAGEE

Brenda Burton-Poole Magee was born December 14, 1960, in Las Vegas Nevada to the late Louis Charles and Mary Poole. She was the second of five (5) children's. She had one son, Torrance Dustin Poole, who preceded her in death.

Brenda attended public school: elementary, junior high, and high school, in the Clark County School District

Brenda accepted Christ at a young age, under the late Rev. VCL Coleman, of the Second Baptist Church. Later in life, she united with Captive Free Christian Fellowship Center, under the leadership of Pastor Billy G. Miller, where she served with the Usher Ministry.

Brenda worked for various Hotels, in the Housekeeping Department, in Las Vegas, Nevada and Detroit, Michigan area. She was also employed by REECO, at the Nevada Test Site.

Brenda had a love for collecting recipes and listening to her music. She was known throughout the family and neighborhood, for her homemade "cheesecake". She also enjoyed watching professional basketball. She also was a "no non-sense person", and for that, her family and friends will miss her dearly. She made tremendous impact on all their lives.

Brenda leaves to mourn two brothers Curtis Burton, Pasadena California, Dale Poole Sr., two sisters, Gale Flanagan (Benny), Donna Wilson, and one granddaughter Adrianna Poole, all of Las Vegas, Nevada. A network of loved Grandkids, nieces, nephews, cousins, family. Two favorite cousins, Missionary Elaine Lightford and Mitchell Burton . One special "Sister best friends" Lisa Walker and "special friend", Debra Brouchet, along with many others to cherish her loving memory.

IF ROSES GROW IN HEAVEN

If roses grow in heaven lord, please pick a bunch for me. Place them in my Sister's arms and tell her they're from me. Tell her that I love her and miss her, and when she turns to smile, place a kiss upon her cheek and hold her for a while. Because remembering her is easy, I do it every day, but there's an ache within my heart that will never go away.

-Your "Sista" Gale Poole Flanagan
