REFLECTIONS OF HIS Life

RALPH DOCTEUR

Ralph Docteur was a man whose life radiated love, loyalty, and laughter. His greatest joy was being a husband and father. Whether cheering from the sidelines or sharing stories on the porch, Ralph showed up with his whole heart. His laughter filled every space, his faith anchored every challenge, and his love for family shaped every choice he made.

Ralph was born in Haiti in 1974 to Violette (who went to be with the Lord) and Jean Elius Docteur and raised in Miami. He was a graduate of Miami Edison Senior High School Class of 1993. He further completed his education at Miami Dade Community College and Midlands Technical College. Ralph built a beautiful life in South Carolina alongside his beloved wife, Katie, and their children – Olivia, Ralph Jr. (RJ), and Reid. His eldest daughter, Audrey, also held a special place in his heart and in the story of his life. Together, his family brought him immense pride and joy, and their moments – near or far – were the treasures he carried deep within him. He loved being a sideline coach and the neighborhood handyman. He was a friend to all and never met a stranger.

He leaves behind a legacy of love, survived by his wife Katie Docteur; his children Audrey (and her two beloved children, Audrianna Mae and Soniya Violette), Olivia, Ralph Jr. (RJ), and Reid; his father Jean Elius Docteur; his brothers Givre Docteur and Gladimir Docteur, and his sister Yvenie Docteur, their families; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends who were blessed by his kindness and presence.

Ralph's life was a journey of faith, family, and steadfast love. Though his road on Earth Has reached its sunset, the light he carried continues to guide all who knew him.

The Road Home

When the road grew quiet
and the light turned gold,
He smiled and whispered,
“I’m home.”

No more detours,
no more miles to roam,
Just love – eternal and whole.
