Rev. Daniel Brown, Officiant

Rev. James Haywood, Eulogist

Now unto Him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy, To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

Jude 24:24-25 (KJV)

“May The Work I’ve Done Speak For Me”

A man in a blue graduation gown and orange shoes stands against a dark background with faint geometric shapes. The text is overlaid on the right side of the image.

Trust in the Lord with all your heart,
And lean not on your own understanding;
In all your ways acknowledge
Him, And He shall direct your paths.

-Proverbs 3:5-6

Asleep

I have closed my eyes and fallen asleep
And there is no reason for you to weep,
This is a debt we all must pay.
You will see me again someday
I endured pain and sometimes sorrow.
Now, I don't have to worry about tomorrow
But life must go on.
You must not worry because I am gone,
You all stood by me all the way.
When I was down you knew just what to say.
The tears you will be shedding now soon will cease.
You will soon realize this was meant to be.
I thank God
I thank God he came for me.

Life Reflections

Daniel DeShaun Brown was born to the union of Ernest L. Brown, Sr., and Willie Pearl (Thompson) Brown on January 12, 1971. At an early age, he accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior. His life was a testament to the enduring power of faith, love, and service to others. Daniel attended Bastrop Elementary and High Schools, graduating in 1989.

In 1995, Daniel accepted his calling and preached his first sermon at Dorcas Chapel Primitive Baptist Church in Bastrop, Texas. Reverend Brown's calling to the ministry marked a significant moment in his life. He joined Dorcas Chapel under the guidance of Reverend James Haywood. Continuing under Reverend Haywood's leadership, he became a member of Judah Praise Church, where he remained until his death. He served as an associate minister in both churches, which gave him opportunities to grow in his ministry. Reverend Brown "Walked the Walk and Talked the Talk." Sometimes called "Prophet Brown" and sometimes referred to as a disciple, he impacted the lives of many people. His prophetic gifts were evident. He deeply touched the lives of many people, leaving a lasting impression on everyone he met. He was truly a man of God.

Throughout his life's journey, he held positions at Griffins and Elgin Brick Yard, but the position he took the most pride in was his opportunity to work with The Honorable Ronnie McDonald for approximately ten years during Judge McDonald's tenure as Bastrop County Judge. For several years, Reverend Daniel Brown cared for his mother as her health declined, staying with her until she passed away.

Daniel had the opportunity to take a road trip across several states with his mother, and she thoroughly enjoyed the experience. Daniel loved his family dearly. He also loved his church, his friends, and the Dallas Cowboys, whether they were winning or losing. His brother called him a "sweet soul".

Reverend Brown was called to his eternal rest on July 17, 2025. He was preceded in death by his parents, Ernest L. Brown, Sr., and Willie Pearl (Thompson) Brown; and one sister, Debra (Tennon) Chambers.

Reverend Daniel Brown will be deeply missed by his loving family, including two brothers: Kevin L. Brown and Ernest L. Brown Jr.; two sisters: Angella (Tennon) Hooks and Lana (Nunn) Washington; two aunts: Joyce Sibley and Plonnie Taylor (Wade); and one uncle: Plummer Thompson Jr. Also sharing the memories of his life are nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and extended family.
