

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch
If my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart, rejoice with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Obituary

Dekisha “Kisha” Wyana Britten was born on January 9, 1979, to the late Yolanda Britten and Harry Morrison. She was preceded in death by her beloved brother, Harry Britten, uncle, Marcus Britten, and three nephews, Sha’Kel Smith,

Dayvon Britten Jr., and Arenz Jamison Jr. Kisha departed this life peacefully on Wednesday, October 29, 2025.

She leaves to cherish her memory two aunts, Kavotus Lackey and Belinda Reeves; two uncles, Rachi, and Marcus; her devoted sisters, Tanika, Shadda, DeKila (her twin), Shelicia, Felicia, and Akerria; thirteen nieces and nephews; and fifteen great-nieces and nephews. Kisha also leaves behind her loving partner of 17 years, Lucinda “Lucy” King, along with a host of other relatives and friends who will miss her dearly.

Kisha received her education at St. Rita School for the Deaf, where she was an active and spirited student who enjoyed playing basketball and volleyball. She loved spending time with her family and was known for her warm heart, sense of humor, and generous spirit. Always willing to lend a helping hand, Kisha touched many lives through her kindness and compassion.

She enjoyed watching football, (a HUGE BENGALS FAN) relaxing with a cold beer, and spending time with her beloved dog, Black Pepper. A dedicated and hardworking woman, Kisha held various jobs throughout her life and was always motivated to stay busy and productive.

Kisha’s loving heart, laughter, and presence will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.
