Clarence Edward Davis Sr. was born May 20, 1955, in Marks, Mississippi to Grover and Mamie Davis. He was the thirteenth child and sixth son born to this union. Simply said he was the baby of the family.

The Davis family relocated to Illinois when he was a toddler. Clarence received his education in Illinois and accepted JESUS as his LORD and SAVIOR when he was young.

Clarence moved to Kansas in the mid-70's where his big brother Grover "June Bug" Davis lived. It was at a Wichita car wash that Clarence first laid eyes on the love of his life Althea Morgan. Who knew an hour spent at a car wash would reveal such a blessing. They were married on October 14, 1978. Clarence and Althea had a blended family and enjoyed spending time with their children and grandchildren. Celebrating birthdays, graduations, and a variety of family events. Clarence was a sharp dresser with a beautiful voice and would often join in on songs making up words as he sang.

Texas was calling. After eight years of marriage Clarence and Althea moved to Addison, Texas. Clarence launched a cleaning company, securing contracts with Southtide I, II, and III. Clarence and Althea remained in Texas until Clarence Heavenly departure.

Clarence retired from McKinney GMC after earning multiple awards for his excellence in sales and business practices.

Clarence created the 4 Horseman Club for the brother in laws which consisted of Clarence Davis Sr., Walter Morgan III, Charles Sparks and Larry Russell.

Although Clarence was the youngest child, he took on the role of the older brother and would call his sisters daily to check on them and if they did not answer he wanted to know why and he would question them with brotherly love. His sister's got a kick out of that. Clarence called Aunt Redelia every Sunday for Bible study. This was something they both looked forward to.

Clarence was preceded in death by his parents, Grover, and Mamie Davis, as well as his brothers, Grover Davis Jr (June Bug), Johnnie Davis Sr., James Davis, Ike Davis Sr., Eugene Davis. Sisters, Ella Belcher, Bertha Collins, and Mamie Coleman and granddaughter Jasmine Davis.

Clarence leaves to cherish his memory his loving, faithful and GOD-fearing wife Althea Davis, his son Clarence Davis Jr (Niece), daughter Tammy Davis, daughter Vonetta Landrum, son Sean Davis. Sisters, Eddie Dancy, Ann Medley, Bettie Williams, Millie Sain-Taylor, and brother Frank Anderson. Ten grandchildren, six great grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews.

Romans 8.38 ~ 39

38: For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39: Nor height, nor depth, nor any creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of GOD which is in CHRIST JESUS our LORD.
