Obituary

As we were looking for documents, we found a letter my mother wrote to my father and me.

She stated that while we were to celebrate her passing, we also read that she didn't want an obituary. She simply wanted her obituary to state one thing, that she was a child of God. She was indeed a child of God.

In her passing she leaves to cherish her memory, her husband of 62 years, Calvin Moore; her son, Ken Moore; and her two granddaughters Kaylah Burton and Kennedy Burton. She also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, students and colleagues.

And God Said

I said, God, I hurt.

And God said, I know.

I said, God, I cry a lot.

And God said, that is why I gave you tears.

I said, God, I am so depressed.

And God said, that is why I gave you Sunshine.

I said, God, life is so hard.

And God said, that is why I gave you loved ones.

I said, God, my loved one died.

And God said, so did mine.

I said, God, it is such a loss.

And God said, I saw mine nailed to a cross.

I said, God, but your loved one lives.

And God said, so does yours.

I said, God, where are they now?

And God said, Mine is on My right and yours is in the Light.

I said, God, it hurts.

And God said, I know.
