Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.*

Love, Mom

What a bond to break. When God called you home that morning our hearts was shattered and broken. We will cherish all the memories we shared together. This is bitter sweet for us. We're glad you are not in pain anymore. But, the selfish side of us still needs you here. It's just so hard, and was hard for us to let you go. Holidays and Birthdays will never be the same. It saddens & crushes our hearts to know we have to move on or get through life without you. This is a hard pill to swallow. We love you forever, Mommy.

Love, your Daughters Tawanda, Dawanda, Shabra

Wanda was a great friend as well as a great union member from Giant food warehouse. She loved her family as well as her grandchildren. Thanks for everything. I will miss her deeply.
