

I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well.— Psalm 139:14

Alexander Carl Ostrosky

August 26, 1994- December 9, 2025

Alex was the beloved son of Keith Ostrosky (Carol Crockett) and Kristi Erickson Mullen (Steve Mullen), and the loving younger brother of Adam Ostrosky (Jessamyn). From an early age, Alex showed a compassionate heart, a thoughtful spirit, and a deep desire to live with purpose. He was athletic, adventurous, and hardworking, known for his loyalty, warmth, and genuine care for others. When Alex helped someone, he made them feel truly seen and valued.

Alex loved being outdoors—running, hiking, fishing, skiing, and exploring new places. He was an enthusiastic sports fan, enjoyed a hot cup of tea by the fire, cherished time playing cribbage and bridge with family and friends, and had a special love for dogs. His adventurous life took him to many places, yet wherever he went, Alex sought meaningful work centered on service and connection.

Faith was an important part of Alex's life, and he found comfort, community, and joy in worship and fellowship. He will be remembered for his kind heart, his gentle smile, and the many lives he touched through his compassion. Alex's love and faith live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.

"If ever there is tomorrow when we're not together... there is something you must always remember. You are braver than you believe, stronger than you seem, and smarter than you think. But the most important thing is, even if we're apart... I'll always be with you."
