A saddened American in Virginia September 16, 2025

Dear Kirk family,

The unimaginable has happened to you. The reckless nature of people has caused you layers of pain and sadness. For that, I am truly sorry.

As a person who has followed Charlie's work and been a supporter of his goals, I can say that my life, as many others, has been impacted by this loss as well. We grieve with you. We pray for you. We support you.

My faith believes that Charlie is resting in the arms of his savior and he's still going to have his hands in this world as he's lit a fire that will never be put out.

Loving prayers and strength to you as you navigate through this period of sadness.

For Charlie: Red, White and Blueberries forever. We love you.

My sincerest condolences to Mrs Erika Kirk, her children, all Charlie's Kirk family & friends. I'm writing to you from a forest in south west Scotland where I'm lucky enough to live.

I stumbled across a video of Charlie's on YouTube about 8 years ago and was hooked. His peaceful manner alongside his ability to listen & politely tear down the people spouting falsehoods and downright lies and no matter the topic.

I was shocked and horrified when I heard he was shot and spent the next couple of hours praying for him, my first time praying since 2001 when I lost my faith. Charlie's death is not in vain because he has given me the catalyst to turn back to God. I'm hoping to find a church near me but it's difficult in a remote area to find an evangelical church but fingers crossed. My health is poor I've had worsening heart failure for the past 16 years. I was 39 when I took ill and my health has continued to fail since then. I'm pulling out my bible and I'm going to start at the beginning I've plenty of time being medically retired lol.

Please excuse my ramblings, poor grammar and spelling - I'm dyslexic.

God bless Charlie, Erika and their two children. Charlie is watching over y'all. Thank you Charlie for your faith and outreach xx

May the Lord continue to bless and comfort the family of Charlie Kirk and may America come together united in a love for the Lord Jesus Christ.

So saddened by Charlie's assassination. I followed him on YouTube and found him to be very articulate in getting the Christian message across in a non threatening manner and speaking truth to this dark world. He was not afraid to answer the hard questions put to him by an indoctrinated youth that continues to be deceived by the media and education system. He will be missed but I believe his legacy will live on and probably become even stronger as Gods hand is in it. My prayers go out to his wife Erika and his 2 young children.

Sunday I found myself asking if I have followed my calling and in searching my heart, I knew the answer was no. I went to our church altar and recommitted and dedicated my life to serving my Lord and Savior. Charlie most certainly will live on in his ministry and legacy of love. Thank God for his loving wife and children that will most certainly be in the prayers and hearts of millions. God bless you during this time and the days to come.

Charlie Kirk was a shining light in this messed up world. He spoke nothing but the truth and always put God first. A family man - devoted to his wife Erika and his two children. Never condescending to anyone willing to debate him, respectful and fair. We've lost a true "Soldier of God." They thought they could silence him with their actions, how foolish. Charlie's voice and views are now being shouted from the rooftops. We've cried, consoled each other but now we need to keep moving forward. It's what he would have wanted. Every time you speak up Charlie will be by your side. Stay strong and continue to speak out - Charlie did!

To Erika and the children, I'm so sorry for your loss, but evil cannot touch a love like Charlie's. Take comfort that although you won't see him, he will always be beside you. We all loved Charlie and we love you too, God bless. X
