

OBITUARY

Johnny Miracle, a devoted family man and cherished member of the Cleburne community, passed away peacefully on April 21, 2026, in his hometown of Cleburne, Texas. Born on April 9, 1964, Johnny's life was a testament to hard work, dedication, and an enduring love for his family and the simple joys of life.

A proud father and husband, Johnny was married to his beloved wife, Kay Miracle, for 44 years. Together, they shared a deep bond enriched by their mutual love of live music events, where they often found joy and connection. Johnny's passion for the outdoors was well known among his family and friends. He found immense pleasure in bird watching, tending to the family farm, deer hunting, and fishing. These activities were more than hobbies; they were expressions of his deep connection to nature and his commitment to a lifestyle grounded in tradition and respect for the land. An extremely hard-working individual, Johnny was also a master of his culinary passions. He loved smoking different foods and grilling, skills he honed with care and pride. Those fortunate enough to share a meal with him will remember the warmth and effort he put into every dish he prepared.

Johnny was preceded in death by his parents, Wilburn James Miracle and Linda Jerene (Roden) Miracle, and his sister, Myrisha Miracle. Survivors include his wife, Kay Miracle; his children, Amanda Montgomery and her husband Daniel, Cody Miracle and his wife Amanda; his grandchildren, Ragan Montgomery, Kenedie Montgomery, Lincoln Montgomery, and Brynley Miracle.

Johnny Miracle's life was one of steadfast commitment to family, work, and the quiet pleasures of his surroundings. He leaves behind a legacy of love, resilience, and dedication that will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered by all who knew him.

Celebrating the Life of

Johnny Miracle

Miss Me-But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road;
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free.
Miss me a little- but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing
good deeds,
Miss me-but let me go.*
