

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Beatrice was born on August 24, 1957, in Cincinnati, OH, to Joseph Henry Reliford and Mary Washington. Tragically, Mary passed away when Beatrice was just six weeks old. She was lovingly raised by Gertrude DeBruce and her father, Joseph, as the youngest of their children.

At a young age, Beatrice moved to Spain with her first husband, Charles White, who was serving in the Army at the time, and their son. She later welcomed a daughter with her second husband, Byron Pope.

Beatrice was a gifted artist and seamstress, known for her vibrant energy that could light up any room. She cherished her family deeply and was always willing to go above and beyond to support her loved ones and friends. Her greatest pride and joy were her grandchildren.

Beatrice was preceded in death by her parents, Mary Washington, Gertrude DeBruce, and Joseph Reliford; her sisters, JoAnn, Mary, and Lorraine; her brothers, Joseph Jr. and Ronald; and her companion, Otis Hampton.

She is survived by her son, Roger "Butchie" Reliford; her daughter, Tara Dunn; and her beloved grandchildren.
