

PSALM

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

OBITUARY

Michael Rafe Coleman was born January 10, 1959 in Cincinnati, Ohio to Earnest L. Coleman and Bessie L. Coleman. He was the only boy of six children.

Michael was affectionately known as “Mooco” by family and friends. He attended Western Hill High School and went on to work for various companies in Cincinnati and Kentucky until he became ill in 2012. Through out his journey, he never had kids, but kids seem to love him. He will always be remembered for his love of music, movies, football and being the life of a party with his dance moves. He never met a stranger.

He is preceded in death by his father, Earnest L. Coleman in June of 1983.

He is survived by his mother; Bessie L. Coleman, five sisters, Phyllis Christopher of Georgetown, Kentucky, Mary McConnell, Elaine George, Barbara Isaacs, Jackie Coleman all of Cincinnati, Ohio; with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
