

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF

God's Garden

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place,
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you.
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful.
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering.
He knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never.
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So he closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, "Peace be thine".
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The family of our beloved extends sincere and heartfelt gratitude for the outpouring of love, prayers, and support shown during our time of bereavement. Your comforting words, floral tributes, acts of kindness, visits, phone calls, and messages have provided strength and encouragement beyond measure. We pray that God will richly bless each of you and continue to keep you in His loving care.

Kiesha MARIE VARGAS

Kiesha Marie Vargas, born on July 21, 2002, in McAllen, Texas, was known by her loved ones for her compassionate, loving, funny, and spirited nature. Kiesha, who moved from her birthplace to Aurora, Colorado, made her mark on everyone she met with her infectious laugh and boundless energy. She had a unique ability to light up any room she walked into and had a personality that was simply magnetic.

Kiesha had a deep love for God and lived her life with an unwavering faith. As it is written in the Scriptures, "For we walk by faith, not by sight" (2 Corinthians 5:7). She was a living testament to this verse, demonstrating her faith through her actions and how she treated others. Her hobbies, which included painting, sports, dancing, listening to music, and baking, were outlets for her vibrant spirit and creative mind. Above all, Kiesha's greatest joy was spending time with her daughter, Azalea, her family, and her friends.

After graduating from Gateway High School, Kiesha entered the professional world, dedicating three years to her work in inland degraded services. However, her heart was always with her family and friends. She prioritized loyalty, respect, and, most importantly, family. Kiesha's sense of humor and uplifting vibe were a source of comfort and joy to all those around her. Despite her young age, she was a pillar of strength and positivity for her loved ones.

Kiesha Marie Vargas is survived by her father, Peter Vargas; her mother, Marisol Betancourt; her daughter, Azalea Vargas; her sisters, Vanessa Deleon, Yvonne Deleon, and Jennifer Deleon; her brother, AJ Garza Jr; her nieces, Jaylin Rosell and Aleezeh Cantu; her nephew, J.J. Rosell; her step-father, Estevan Jabiel; her brother-in-law, Cj Sanders; her cousins, Kayla Castillo, Luis Castillo, Andrew Castillo, Gilbert Betancourt, Harley Hernandez, Abel Hernandez, Joel Hernandez and Alexandra Deleon; and her aunt, Hortencia Hernandez; and her domestic partner, Maliq Alford. She was preceded in death by her aunt, Guadalupe Hernandez, her grandparents, Gilberto Betancourt, Antonia Vargas, and Victor Vargas
