

Poem

*Don't think of him as gone away his journey's just begun, life holds so many facets this earth is only one.
Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.
Think how he must be wishing that we could know today how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.
And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost and he was loved so much.*

Life Reflections

Our loving father Amos Boswell tragically left us on December 29th. He left behind 3 loving daughters, Nicole Blount, Justus Boswell and Latia Coney. Along with his grandson Jaiden Suber and granddaughter Takyra Carter Coney, who will miss him so much. Amos loved basketball. He loved to talk about the good old days and reminisce about the times he dunked on everyone down at Washington park. He attended a college in Texas to pursue basketball but then came back to Boston shortly after. He always brought a smile to everyone's face with jokes he'll come up with on a daily basis. Amos was a hard-working father who provided for his family without a doubt. He worked numerous jobs such as truck driver, management in retail and food but he loved cars. A loving father, tender and kind, what a beautiful memory you left behind.

We are deeply grateful for the time we spent with him, for the laughter we shared, and for the life lessons he passed on to us. He was a remarkable father, and we will miss him dearly. As we say goodbye today, I hope to honor my father by living a life that reflects his values, of love, compassion, and selflessness.
