

A PRAYER FROM MOM'S HANDWRITTEN NOTES

"Father in Heaven, I pray for my family and friends. Bless them and keep them safe. Help them to know Your peace and the love You have for them. Help me to make their world a richer and happier place. Amen."

Found among Mom's personal handwritten notes.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The family of Barbara Hodges extends our deepest gratitude for the love, prayers, and support shown during our time of loss. Every gesture of kindness has reminded us that our mother's life made a lasting difference in the lives of so many.

Though we mourn her absence, we take comfort in God's promise, knowing that while she is absent from the body, she is present with the Lord. Her faith, love, wisdom, and compassion continue to live on through the countless lives she touched and the cherished memories she leaves behind.

Thank you for helping us celebrate her remarkable life and enduring legacy.

OBITUARY

Barbara Walker Hodges was born on January 3, 1961, in Mississippi to Roosevelt Walker and Mary Jane Walker. A longtime resident of Waco, she lived a life centered on faith, family, and service. She was the devoted wife of Floyd Hodges for 45 years and a loving mother, grandmother, sister, and friend. Barbara served for 15 years as a Juvenile Supervision Officer at the Bill Logue Juvenile Justice Center, where she was dedicated to helping and guiding young people. She enjoyed fishing, spending time with family, and creating cherished memories with those she loved.

Barbara was preceded in death by her parents, Roosevelt Walker and Mary Jane Walker; her sister, Felicia Johnson; and her brother, Calvin Walker.

She is survived by her husband, Floyd Hodges; her children, Andre Hodges (Amber), Laura Kingery (Jesse), and Jennifer Lockwood (David); her grandchildren, Alyssa, Konner, Kolten, Aubrey, Korben, and Preston; and her siblings, Roosevelt Walker Jr., Charles Walker (Gala), and Sacred Walker.

To truly know Barbara was to experience unconditional love. She was our sanctuary, our greatest advocate, and the heart of our family.

Though gone from our sight, her love remains forever in us.
