I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave
an afterglow of smiles
when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright & sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories
that I leave behind
When life is done.

Orville Earl Habeck was born on November 22, 1939, to Henry and Gretchen (Schneck) Habeck on the family farm located near Marvin, SD. He attended Kilborn Country School, where he completed his education through the 8th grade. Following his schooling, Orville began working on the farm alongside his father, Henry, where he developed a deep appreciation for the land and farming life.

On November 21, 1969, Orville married Louise Pribbenow in Milbank, SD. They were blessed with two children, Jason and Jolene.

Farming proved to be challenging over the years, and when he eventually had to stop farming, Orville transitioned to other work. He initially drove a school bus for a couple of years. He later took up a position as a truck driver for Hedge and Herberg, before finding a long-term role as a janitor at the Milbank School, where he worked from 1996 until 2008. In 2021, after suffering a stroke, Orville moved into Avantara.

Orville had a genuine love for the outdoors and a deep respect for animals. He found joy in being surrounded by nature and treated animals with great care and kindness.

Orville is survived by his son, Jason Habeck of Milbank, SD; son-in-law, Joe Kleppe; and step-granddaughter, Aurora Kleppe. He was preceded in death by his parents: Henry and Gretchen Habeck; his beloved wife, Louise; his daughter, Jolene Louise Kleppe; two infant grandchildren; and his two sisters: Francis Wohlleber and Arlene Rude.
