

German Old House Blessing

*Where there is faith, there is love;
Where there is love, there is peace;
Where there is peace, there is blessing;
Where there is blessing; there is God;
Where there is God, there is no need.*

*"I have told you these things, so that in Me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble.
But take heart! I have overcome the world."
John 16:33*

Milbank, South Dakota

Jeanette was born on May 25, 1933, in Milbank, SD, and was the eldest of three children born to Telo and Selma (Schweer) Moldenhauer. Jeanette grew up in LaBolt. She attended school in LaBolt and Milbank. She was baptized, confirmed, and married at the Emanuel Lutheran Church.

On January 8, 1950, she and Leonard Haliburton of Strandburg, SD, were united in marriage. They made their home in Milbank and raised six sons. She was a devoted wife, mother, and doting grandmother. An excellent homemaker and cook.

As soon as her youngest son started school, Jeanette entered the workforce. Starting at Bill's Super Valu Grocery Store and then for a long time she was a teacher's aide at the Koch Elementary School. She truly enjoyed being part of the Special Education team. After school she spent many hours tutoring Adult Literacy in her home. Jeanette also hosted numerous students for lessons on Laura Ingalls Wilder books and Pioneer Life. She was a reading advocate. Her annual yard sales each summer were a legendary in the community.

She also did volunteer work for Easter Seals, Emanuel Lutheran Church, and other community groups. She and Lenny were members of the Lake Region Antique Car Club and had made many friends through the club.

Preceding her in death were her husband, Leonard; son, Clark; and brother, Norman Moldenhauer.

She is survived by sons: Denny (Cindy) of Aberdeen, SD; Garry (Judy) of Harrisburg, SD; Tim (Kim) of Seoul, Korea; Richard (Renee) of Cottage Grove, MN; and Robert (Teresa) of Cottage Grove, MN; daughter-in-law, Dori Haliburton of Watertown, SD; brother, Jerry (Sharon) Moldenhauer of Tucson, AZ; sister-in-law, Laverna Moldenhauer of Milbank, SD; 17 grandchildren; and 16 great-grandchildren.
