Jessie was born near Wellington, Texas on April 26, 1928, to Hampton and Hattie (Haley) Clement. She graduated from Amarillo High School and later attended Wayland Baptist University. On June 5, 1948, she married the love of her life, William "Bill" Solomon at San Jacinto Baptist Church where they were faithfully devoted members. They were married for 41 years. Together, Bill and Jessie built a life based on faith, love, and hard work.

At the time of her passing, Jessie was the oldest living member of San Jacinto Baptist Church, now known as the Church at Quail Creek, where she had been a member since she was 14. She loved her church home and family. Jessie served her Lord and Savior with acts of love and service to her church and family. She taught Sunday School for decades, teaching various age groups from four-year-olds all the way to young married couples to know and serve Jesus. Her service didn't end at the church doors. She truly had a heart for missions and she traveled to places like Japan, Kenya, and Tanzania ministering the Gospel and helping others to know the truth she so deeply believed, that Jesus is the Way, the Truth and the Life.

Only one other thing came close to the love of Jesus in Jessie's life, and that was the love she so unconditionally gave to her family. Jessie was not just a great wife and mother, but the best Mimi to her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She loved having them over, hosting family gatherings for holidays and any reason in between. Jessie didn't just play host to the family, however. She and Bill regularly opened their home for their church family and guests of the church. When not hosting or traveling for church missions, Jessie loved to travel with her family and Bill. When Bill retired, they traveled all over the United States and into Canada until his untimely death in 1989.

Jessie is preceded in death by her parents, her beloved husband, Bill, daughter, Bretta Solomon Fite, and sister Wanda Johnson. Those left to cherish her memories are her daughter, Karen Weddel and husband Sport, sister Jorene Axelrod, brother, Jim Clement and wife Cathy; two grandchildren, Janae Dale and husband David and Alyssa Hamburg and husband Derek; four great grandchildren, Matt and Ben Dale and Haylee and Daniel Hamburg, as well as many nieces, nephews and precious friends.

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

~Psalm 23~

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
