

From My Heart To Yours

To my Family and Friends

Do not weep for me
For I am just asleep.

When you think of me
Think of the memories we made
The warm embrace we shared
And all the tall tales I've told.

Though I've moved on to a different place
Our bond is a bond that can't be erased.

So, if your heart gets heavy
Don't dwell too long
Because none of us can stay but for so long.

To those of you who liked me
I sincerely thank you
And those of you who loved me
I thank you the most.

Family and Friends

During my journey, my fleeting lifespan
As time went rushing by
I found time to laugh, to love and to cry.

Though I have crossed the quiet shore
I leave behind jokes, memories and cheers that should carry
You through the years

Now my time has come
For my time to cease
And now
I'm at peace.

Pallbearers
Steven, George Jr., Brandon, David
Londell, Steve

Floral Bearers
Shakia, Porshia, Raquel, Hope
LaQuitta, Catrise

Acknowledgements

The family of

Scott Charles Scarborough

would like to acknowledge and thank everyone for their cards, expressions, support, condolences, and many acts of kindness. Your prayers and words of comfort are helping us adjust to a missing piece of our heart. We love you and we will lean on you as we continue to adjust.

Job's Mortuary, Inc.
Ralph W. Canty Sr., Director

312 South Main St.
P. O. Box 1231 - Sumter, SC 29151
803-773-3323 or 803-773-3324

Home of Distinctively Finer Funeral Service

CELEBRATION OF LIFE FOR

Scott Charles Scarborough

Sunrise
January 14, 1963

Sunset
June 16, 2026

Friday, June 26, 2026
Eleven O'clock in the Morning

Salem Chapel and Heritage Center
101 S. Salem Avenue
Sumter, South Carolina

Pastor Ethel Richburg, Eulogist
Rev. Sonya Lybrand, Officiant

“You better find something safe to do.”

Quote by Scott Scarborough

LIFE REFLECTIONS

Mr. Scott Scarborough, son of the late Thomas (Plummer) Scarborough and Runette S. Temoney was born January 14, 1963 in Sumter County. He departed this life on Tuesday, June 16, 2026 at Prisma Health Tuomey Hospital.

Scott was educated in the public schools of Sumter County. He was employed by Whitaker Cabinet Inc. of Mayesville, SC for many years as a cabinet maker, Tim Newman Tree Service in Sumter and then he ventured out with his own Lawn/Tree service business.

Scott loved the Lord, loved dressing nice and playing basketball. He loved people. He never met anyone he didn’t know. He would give you the shirt off his back. If he had a dollar and you needed it, it was yours. His favorite words were, “You better find something safe to do.” From his sense of humor, to his fashionable way and the way he communicated with family and friends made him a joy to be around.

He married Paula L. Scarborough and has two sons, and one granddaughter whom he loved very much; a lot of bonus grandkids that he held dear and close to his heart. He attended Cherryvale Baptist Church Shaw for many years. Later on he joined Greater St. James FBH in Irmo, SC.

Scott was preceded in death by his beloved parents, his oldest sister, Mildred Scarborough and a special niece, LaQuesta Rufus.

He leaves to cherish his memories his wife, Paula Lybrand Scarborough of Irmo, SC; two sons, Roddregus Wells of Winston Salem, NC and Scottie (Andya) Stewart, and one granddaughter of Sumter, S C; five sisters: Catherine (George) Sumter and Karen (Joseph) Bolden of Hopkins, SC, Brenda (Robert) Young of Columbia, SC, Rosemary Pope of Raleigh NC and Ruth (John) Tyson of Cape Coral, Florida; four brothers: Leroy Scarborough of Lynchburg, SC, Dennis Scarborough of Sumter, SC Michael Scarborough of Hopkins, SC and Cory (Helen) Scarborough of Chapin, SC; and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends he held dearly in his heart.

Order of Sacred Worship Service
Rev. Sonya Lybrand, Officiating

Prelude	Medley of Music
Processional	Clergy and Family
Opening Song	Sarah Smith Open The Flood Gates of Heaven
Prayer	Joseph Bolden
Scriptures:
Old Testament	Rosemary Pope Psalm 23
New Testament	Karen Bolden Revelation 21:1-5
Selection	David Sumter When You Cry
Reflections: please limit to three minutes	Open Mic
Poem	Shaqualah Jackson
Acknowledgements	Rev. Sonya Lybrand
Solo	Sarah Smith
Words of Comfort	Pastor Ethel Richburg
Recessional	Medley of Music

Interment
Sam and Lela Scarborough Memorial Park
Hwy 341 North, Lynchburg SC

