BEULAH

L. MACK-MILTON

Beulah daughter of the late Charlie and Mary Eliza Ashe-Mosley, was born on November 30, 1945 in Roanoke Rapids, North Carolina. Beulah peacefully answered God's call on Monday, January 4, 2021 at Rahway Hospital. Beulah was baptized at an early age and became a member of the London Baptist Church in Roanoke Rapids, North Carolina. Beulah graduated from John Armstrong Chaloner High School in 1964.

Beulah moved to Newark, New Jersey where she joined in holy matrimony to her late husband Joseph Mack, Sr. from this union they were blessed with two sons Vinnie and Joseph Jr. (Khalif).

Beulah was employed at Beth Israel Medical Center in the Pediatric Intensive Care Unit for 17 years as a Nurses Aide. Beulah was very dedicated in her position loved to help others. On January 7, 2008 she retired. Beulah enjoyed catering, baking and cooking dinner for her family and friends. Whenever she would have dinner or a party it would be done with class. Linen tablecloths and napkins, beautiful centerpieces, crystal ware, her table would be set up beautifully. Beulah was working in her spare time with a catering company where she was given the opportunity to serve President Ronald Regan on May 16, 1984.

Beulah was a good listener, always giving good advice. She was a giver, never looking for anything in return. Beulah always wanted to increase her skills by taking courses to get certified in Nursing and computers. Beulah later went on to further her education in Nursing at Essex County College where she graduated in 2004.

Beulah was a woman who loved the Lord with her whole heart, she never spoke harsh words to anyone. Beulah was a member of First Timothy Baptist Church, where she served as a faithful member and enjoyed singing with the Senior Choir. Beulah moved her membership to Miracle

Temple where she became head of the Nutrition Ministry, Nursing Home Ministry just to name a few. Exhorter Beulah Mack-Milton loved her church and her church family doing whatever, she could to help lift up the name of the Lord. Beulah's favorite bible verse was Psalm 91. Preceded in death her son Vinnie.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories one devoted son Joseph Mack Jr. (Khalif) his wife Wanda B. Mack, Goddaughter Bertrilla R. Simmons, four grandchildren Tamira Dickey, LaMichael Blount, Joseph Mack III and Mercedes Mack, two great Grandchildren, Kayla and Jayden McIver, five Sisters Mary Falcon, Elma Bowser(Waverly), Betty Bowser, Mildred Mosley, Terry Robinson (Alan) three Brothers Dennis Mosley(Claire), Edward Mosley, and John Mosley and host of relatives and friends. Sleep on Beulah take your rest we all love you but God loves you best!
