LIFE'S JOURNEY

Tambria Ariel Thomas was born on March 23, 1982, in Jackson, MS to LaVoila Thomas and the late Jaria "Jerry" Lee Taylor. She was one of three children.

While born in Jackson, MS, as a child, she was moved to California and then Chicago, IL. Tambria moved backed to Mississippi at the age of 18 years old.

During her developmental and education years, she attended various schools to include: Wilshire Crest Elementary School, Yazoo City School District, Palms Middle School, Culver City High School and Homewood-Flossmoor High School. She also attended Faith Acting School.

Tambria was self-employed as a hairstylist doing what she loved.

She was loving and caring. Tambria was a mother of four beautiful children. Her children loved her unconditionally and they will always cherish the good times spent with their mom.

Tambria left this earthly house on July 15, 2023, at the age of 41 years old. She is preceded in death by her father, Jaria Lee Taylor; paternal grandmother: Dorothy Lee Taylor; and uncle: Glen L. Thomas.

She leaves a loving family to cherish her memories to include, her mother: LaVoila Thomas; four children: Alana Cambria Thomas Coleman, Austin Tyler Richardson, Angel A. Thomas and Aymirez K. Thomas; two siblings: Ariel Thomas and Bianca Thomas; maternal grandmother: Charlean Thomas; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

TRIBUTES

They Say There is a Reason

*They say there is a reason,
They say that time will heal,
But neither time nor reason,
Will change the way I feel,
For no-one knows the heartache,
That lies behind our smiles,
No-one knows how many times,
We have broken down and cried,
We want to tell you something,
So, there won't be any doubt,
You're so wonderful to think of,
But so hard to be without.*

Love Your Mom

To Our Mama

*"You never said I'm leaving,
you never said goodbye.
You were gone before we knew it and only God knew why.
In life we loved you dearly,
in death I love you still.
In our hearts you hold a place that no
one could ever fill.*

*It broke our hearts to lose you,
you did not go alone,
For part of us went with you the day
God called you home. "
Take your rest Mama.
Love Your Children*

To Our Sister

*Even though you are gone away,
Your love will always be here to stay.
You touched our hearts
with so many things.
God knew you were the one to save,
He took you home to get some rest,
Even though we loved you best.*
