

“Until We Meet Again”

Please do not let sorrow
Pull your hearts apart,
For the greatest gift you gave me
Was love from the very start.
Though my little hands are no longer there
To reach for yours each day,
The memories we made together
Will never fade away.
When you think of me, please smile,
And let love lead the way,
Because I carried both your hearts
Inside of mine each day.
I loved my cars, my movies,
And doing things alone,
But the place I loved the most of all
Was anywhere called home.
So hold on to the good memories,
And keep my spirit near,
For I'll forever be your little “Jay,”
Watching over you from here.

The Family’s Message of Gratitude

The Family of JAYDEN EMIR “JAY” IVERY would like to express our heartfelt appreciation to each and every person who has extended prayers, love, comforting words, calls, visits, and acts of kindness during this difficult time in our lives. Though our hearts are deeply saddened by the loss of our precious baby, your support has reminded us that we do not walk this journey alone. Every gesture of love has brought strength, comfort, and peace to our family during days that have been most difficult to bear. Thank you for loving our sweet Jay and for surrounding our family with compassion and care. We will forever cherish the memories, prayers, and kindness shown to us. May God richly bless each of you for the love you have shared.

CELEBRATING THE PRECIOUS LIFE OF

Jayden Emir Ivery

“JAY”

April 9, 2024 - May 9, 2026

“There are some who bring a light so great to the world that even after they are gone, the light remains.”

With hearts filled with love and tears of sorrow, we celebrate the beautiful life and precious memories of Jayden Emir “Jay” Ivery, who entered eternal rest on Friday, May 9, 2026. Though his time on earth was brief, Jayden’s life was filled with joy, laughter, love, and a sweet spirit that touched everyone blessed to know him.

Born on April 9, 2024, to the loving parents of Amber Whigham and JaMichael Ivery, Jayden was truly a gift from God. Affectionately known as “Jay,” he brought sunshine wherever he went. His bright smile, curious eyes, and playful personality made every room feel warmer and every moment more special.

Jayden was an independent little soul with a mind of his own. He loved trying to do things for himself and carried a determination far beyond his years. Whether he was busy playing with his toy cars, watching his favorite movies, or simply exploring the world around him, Jayden embraced life with innocence, wonder, and joy. His laughter was contagious, and the love he gave so freely will forever remain in the hearts of those who cherished him.

Though words cannot fully express the pain of losing such a precious child, the family finds comfort in knowing that Jayden’s beautiful spirit will live on through every treasured memory, every smile he inspired, and every life he touched.

Jayden leaves to cherish his loving memories: his loving mother, Amber Whigham; devoted father, JaMichael Ivery; his brother, Ja’Mari Ivery; his sister, La’Niaya Ivery; his maternal grandparents, Brenda Whigham and Anthony Whigham; his maternal great-grandfather, Joe Edwards; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives, and loving friends who will forever hold him close in their hearts.

Though little Jay’s journey on earth was short, his life was meaningful, impactful, and deeply loved. Heaven has gained a beautiful angel whose love will never fade from the hearts of those who knew him.

Rest peacefully, sweet Jay. You will forever be loved, remembered, and missed.
