THE LIFE & LEGACY OF BEATRICE D. MOORE

Mrs. Beatrice D. Moore born July 4, 1925 in Wallace, NC to Annie and William Gavin. Mrs. Moore traveled from NC to Norfolk, Virginia where she became a Waitress at Howard Johnsons, where she met and later married Mr. James G. Moore.

They continued their lives in Washington, DC where she pursued a nursing degree at Federal City College. She received her practical nursing license, which later was converted into a license of practical nursing license. She then worked at Ft. Belvoir as a pediatric nurse, later obtaining a job at Walter Reed Army Medical Center on Georgia Avenue, NW Washington, DC. Mrs. Moore worked with the GI's on the eye ward and the babies on the pediatric unit until she retired in 1971. She continued her life being a devoted mother.

Her belief and worship of the Lord was evident in her life with always a smile even though she was upset. Both her and husband worshipped faithfully at St. Paul Community Church under the tutelage of the late Rev. Evan S. Lockett. She worked tirelessly as a devoted missionary with a smile and sweet quietness. She loved her flowers; her friends and her trips to the grocery and dollar stores. Her favorite color was red.

Mrs. Moore is survived by her devoted daughter; Tonya L. Moore; grandsons; great grand children and a host of other relatives and friends.

In Loving Memory

They say that there is a reason
They say that time will heal but neither time nor reason may change the way I feel
For no one knows my heart ache that lies behind my smile.
No one knows how many times I have broken down and cried
I want to tell you something so there won't be no doubt.
You are so wonderful to think of But so hard to be without.
