

Love Lives On

You went away so suddenly
We did not say goodbye
But brothers can never be parted
Precious memories never die.

Psalms 27:1-2

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?
When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

Obituary

Brandon Eric Brown passed away on June 24, 2024, in his hometown of Cincinnati, Ohio, at the young age of 34. Born on June 19, 1990. He was the cherished son of Eric W. Brown and Theresa L. Cave and the loving brother of Blake E. Brown.

Brandon was baptized on February 1st, 2002, at the age of twelve under the leadership of Dr. Donald E. Jones Sr. of The Greater New Hope Missionary Baptist Church.

Brandon graduated from Colerain High School where he participated in marching band and orchestra. Brandon was a gifted French horn player. His teacher, Mr. Glen Greenwood recently commented, "He is and always will be one of the most outstanding young men I ever worked with. I will always remember him as one of the best out of thousands that I have taught." Brandon was also a talented artist, he loved family, animals of all sorts, and gaming.

Brandons friends call him, "Scoob" and constantly remind him of how selfless, caring, and loyal he was. Brandon thought he was Lance Armstrong Jr. Being an avid biker; Brandon would ride from Colerain to Miami University and that ride would take him a couple of hours' time with his cycling friends. Often these rides would be decided at a moment's notice. All of those that knew Brandon well considered him to be genuine, loyal, a kind soul, a great guy, selfless, always smiling and laughing, and everyone's best friend.

Brandon was employed at Game - On Sports Grill, and loved the people he worked with, especially his manager Hunter who is a kind-hearted understanding employer. Brandon's heart was one of love and support to almost anyone he met. Brandon previously worked as master chef for Olive Garden, Red Lobster, Apple Bee's and Quaker Steak & Lube.

Brandon was preceded in death by his maternal grandfather, Arthur Leonard Cave, Sr., and his paternal grandparents, James E. Brown and Faye S. Brown.

Brandon leaves behind a loving family: his father, Eric W. Brown (Angela); his mother, Theresa L. Lockett (Kenneth); his brother, Blake E. Brown; and maternal grandmother, Juanita Cave.

He also leaves behind a host of cousins: Michael Cave (Von), David Simpson, Ein Whately (Nicole), Maurice Lockett, Tony Garrett, Keland Simpson, Sean Simpson, Michelle Cave, Toni Cave, Arthur Cave III (Lauren), Brittany Lockett, Wyman Lockett Jr., Kendrae Lamar, Shennell Smith (Chaz), Samuel Whately, Kaniya Simpson, and many many best friends.
