I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles
when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright & sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories
that I leave behind
When life is done.

Bradley Henry Foss, was one of five children born to Harry and Isabell (Swanberg) Foss on February 18, 1951, in Morris, Minnesota. Brad grew up in Hancock and was baptized and confirmed at Our Redeemer's Lutheran Church. He received his education in Hancock, graduating with the Hancock High School, class of 1969. While Brad was in school, he worked part-time at the Zip Bell Grocery Store. Following his schooling, Brad moved to Minneapolis for a time and worked as a meat cutter, he returned to Hancock and continued to work as a meat cutter in Morris and Hancock. Brad began his career with Hancock Concrete and worked there for 17 years, at that time, they merged with Superior and Brad continued at Superior. Never wanting to quit working, Brad was still currently employed at Superior. During his first marriage, Brad was blessed with three children: Stephanie, Stacy, and Rick. Later, through friends and a bible study at church, Brad was introduced to Linda Mumm, the two began dating and were married on March 23, 2002, at the Morris Evangelical Free Church. They blended their family, and Brad gained four more children: Andrea, Laura, Grace, and Matt. Over the years, they were blessed to add 22 grandchildren!

Brad was a member of the Morris Evangelical Free Church. He LOVED to talk to people, making anyone and everyone laugh – he was a hoot! Brad enjoyed hunting, fishing, cruising in his black pickup. He always had it clean. He looked forward to their annual family camping trips at Glacial Lakes State Park, south of Starbuck, and weekends at the lake, at Pelican Lake in Long Beach. He and Linda traveled on many road trips – with destinations such as: Duluth, the Badlands, Stillwater, and Chase on the Lake, in addition to going out on local dates.
