BENEDICTION

Sharon

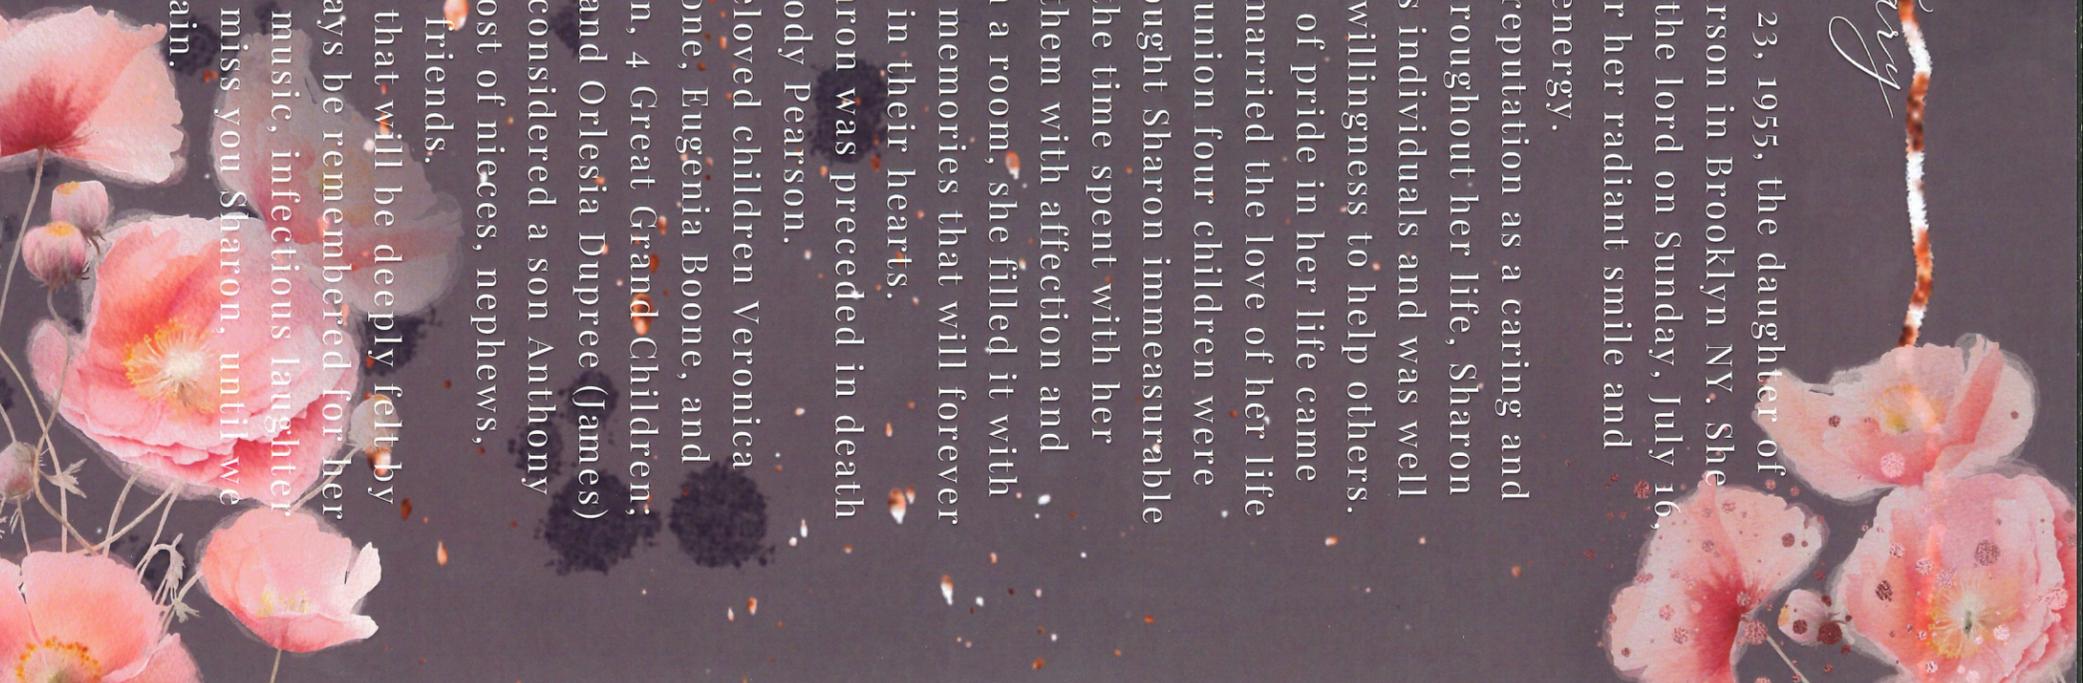

Sharon Boone was born May 23, 1955, the daughter of Nellie Battle and William Pearson in Brooklyn NY. She peacefully left went to be with the lord on Sunday, July 16, 2023. Sharon was known for her radiant smile and boundless energy.

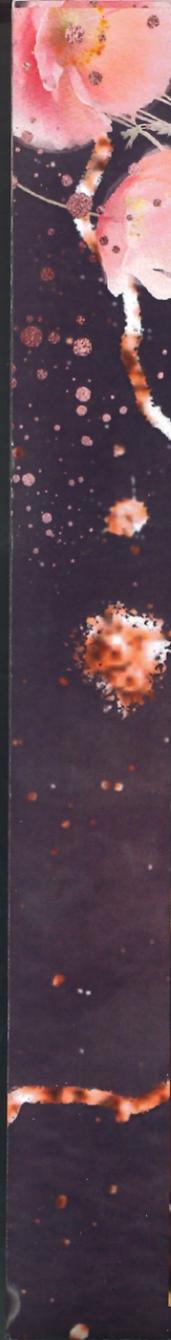

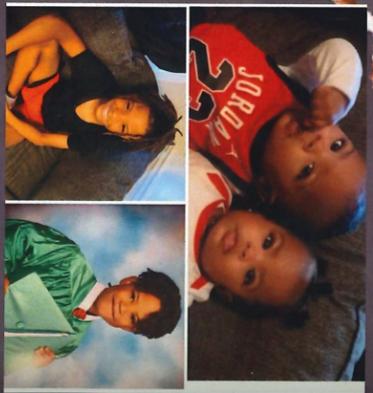

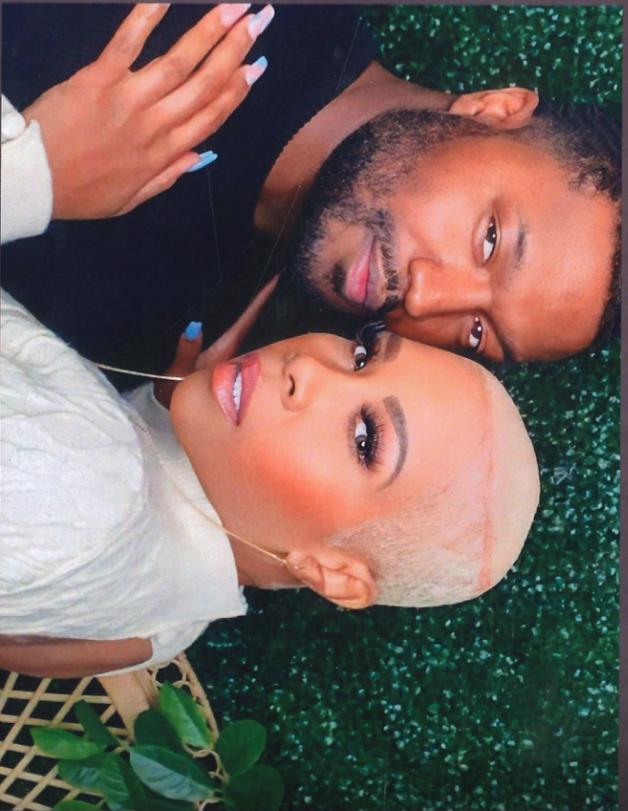

These qualities earned her a reputation as a caring and compassionate individual. Throughout her life, Sharon touched the lives of countless individuals and was well known for her generosity and willingness to help others. Sharon's true joy and source of pride in her life came from her family. She met and married the love of her life Eugene Boone and from this union four children were born. Being a grandmother brought Sharon immeasurable happiness. She cherished the time spent with her grandchildren, showering them with affection and wisdom. Whenever she was in a room, she filled it with warmth and laughter, creating memories that will forever hold a special place in their hearts.

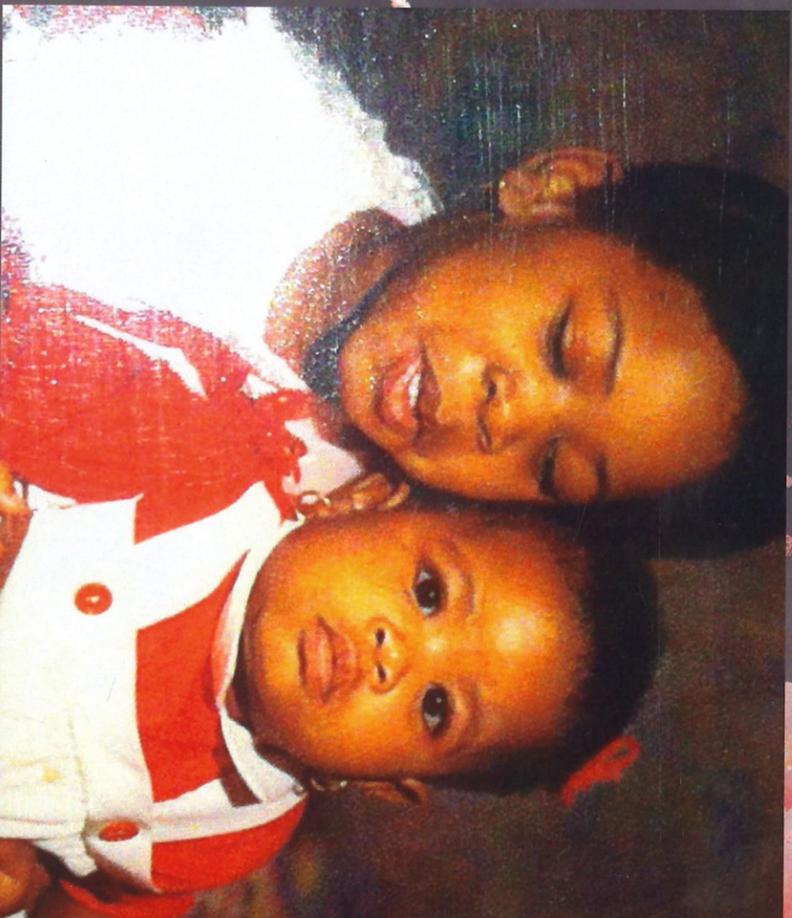

In addition to her parents, Sharon was preceded in death by her sister Melody Pearson.

Sharon leaves behind her beloved children Veronica Davis, Lateasha (Queen) Boone, Eugenia Boone, and Eugene Boone. 9 Grandchildren, 4 Great Grand Children; 2 sisters Badia Coston (Craig) and Orlesia Dupree (James) and a special friend that she considered a son Anthony Bradford Edmonds and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Sharon's passing leaves a void that will be deeply felt by all who knew her. She will always be remembered for her love of God, extensive taste in music, infectious laughter and witty comebacks. We will miss you Sharon, until we meet again.

Let Me Meet Again

*So grieve for me a while if grieve, you must then let your grief be comforted with trust.
It's only for a while that we must part so bless the memories with your heart and then when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and a welcome home.*

-Poem from Sharon

You will be missed, sleep in heavenly peace until we meet again. Love you
