

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Clarice Beasley, lovingly referred to as "Reecie," was born on November 28, 1976, at General Hospital of Cincinnati, Ohio, to Rita and Clark Beasley.

She is preceded in death by her sisters, Mallissa Brown and Melinda Beasley. In her childhood, they were known as "The Beasley Sisters."

Clarice attended Aiken High School. After high school, Clarice spent the better part of her career in the hospitality field, where she was loved and revered by the company.

In her free time, Clarice loved listening to music, especially R&B and Chris Brown. She thoroughly enjoyed shopping, playing cards, spending time with family, and getting dolled up.

Upon retiring, she returned home to raise her children full-time while caring for her nephew, Devan, and niece, Meliyah.

She leaves behind to mourn her favorite and only daughter, Stephanae McPheeters; one son, Anthony Dinwiddie; an honorary son (nephew), Devan Richardson; an honorary daughter, (niece) Meliyah Beasley; her children's loving and devoted father, Steve McPheeters; two sisters, Claudia and Cathy Beasley; Kakzinave Beasley (Cuz) as well as a host of loved ones and dear friends.

Proverbs 3:5-6

Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean on not your own understanding; In all your ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct your paths. The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit."
