

Notice of Address Change

Dear Family and Friends,

I want to let you know that I have moved. I received a call from God, the Chief Architect who informed me that my new home is ready and that I could move immediately. You all know that I have been sending up my timber packing, getting ready to go.

But there were some minor finishing touches on some of the timber that only the Chief Carpenter, Jesus Christ could do. Some were a little broad, thick or not long enough.

Well, my new home is finished and it's such a beautiful sight to behold. It is located in an exclusive estate area and it sits behind a beautiful Pearly Gate, just off a serene celestial shore. Of course, the streets are paved with gold and every day is Sunday here, I have been told. I lived in many places before my new home was prepared, and none of the others can compare.

There is peace, joy and happiness here with no more pain to bear. No strife or discontent, there is only sweet serenity everywhere and I could go on about new home, but I have to get fitted for my new robe.

Let me give you my new address:
P.O. Box Jesus
Gods Town Heaven

P.S. I don't have a telephone yet, but just call. If you don't have the number, I'm listed in the Good Book on every page.

Celebrating His Legacy

Ronald Carl Grant, was born September 27, 1935 in Cincinnati, Ohio to the late Johnnie Power and Samuel Lee Grant. He was the third of six children. Ronald took his journey home to be with the Lord on April 6, 2009. Preceding his death were his brothers, Samuel Lee Grant Jr. (June), Johnny Edward Grant (Puddin) and Daniel Richard Grant (Buzzi), his daughter, Audrey Lynn White and his son, Isaac Andrew Jackson.

Ronald accepted Christ at an early age at Carmel Presbyterian Church.

He attended the Cincinnati Public Schools; attending Bloom Elementary and Old Woodward High School.

Ronald was employed with the City of Cincinnati, a dedicated and hard worker in the Maintenance Department for more than 30 years.

His most memorable hobbies were bowling, fishing, and spending time with his many grand children. Ronald was a happy man at all times. His love for walking we rarely caught him sitting down. Ronald loved watching old western movies.

He leaves to mourn: his loving wife, Frances Gardner and a loving friend Deanna Avery-Grant; sisters, Dolores Crum (Dee), Mary Evelyn Twyman; children Ronald Spencer Grant, Julie Grant, Samuel Lee Grant, Zebra Lynn (Ontiwon) Primus Sr, Cora F. Berry, Monroe (Sharon) Banks, Lavette Banks (Becky), Latonya Banks (Toni), Lashaun Jazetta Jackson, Arteamus U Jackson, Lamont T. Jackson, and Tracey Renee Jenkins, 38 grandchildren, 15 great grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

"I'm Free"

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God has laid, you see.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found the peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
God wanted me now, He set me free!
