

Footprints in the Sand

One night I had a dream . . .

I dreamed I was walking along the beach with the Lord, and across the sky flashed scenes from my life. For each scene I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; One belonged to me, and the other to the Lord. When the last scene of my life flashed before us, I looked back at the footprints in the sand. I noticed that many times along the path of my life, there was only one set of footprints.

I also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in my life. This really bothered me, and I questioned the Lord about it. "Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, You would walk with me all the way; But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why in times when I needed you the most, you should leave me."

The Lord replied, "My precious, precious child. I love you, and I would never, never leave you during your times of trial and suffering. When you saw only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

Obituary

Robert Lewis Andrews was born into this world on February 2, 1986, to his parents, Deborah Gean Andrews and Gayle Rancher.

Rob, as everyone affectionately called him, was known for his outgoing spirit and his loving, golden heart. He had a natural ability to bring energy and joy into any room he entered. Whether he was wrestling with friends or playing baseball and football, Rob embraced life with enthusiasm and a competitive spirit. He truly was the life of the party—fun, vibrant, and full of laughter, leaving lasting impressions on everyone he met.

Robert attended Lincoln Heights Elementary and later went on to Princeton High School, where he excelled both academically and socially. He carried himself with confidence and determination, building friendships and memories that would last a lifetime.

Above all, Robert was a devoted family man who deeply loved his children. His family was the center of his world, and he took great pride in being present in their lives. His love, guidance, and presence will forever be cherished. It saddens his family and friends that he was taken from them far too soon, leaving behind a void that can never be filled.

Robert was preceded in death by his grandfather, Joseph Andrews; his grandmother, Cynthia Andrews; and his aunt, Dedra Wildon.

Robert leaves behind his mother, Deborah Gean Andrews; his father, Gayle Rancher; his brother, Marwin Q. Andrews; and his sister, January Nichole Andrews. He also leaves behind his children: Robert Lee, Terrell, and Kyle Page; Ra’Kylia Andrews and Robert Lewis Andrews Jr. He also leaves behind his uncle, Joseph (Jo-Jo) Andrews, and his aunt Reba Andrews, and a host of cousins and friends.
