Stairway to Heaven

If tears could build a stairway
and memories were a lane,
I would walk right up to Heaven and bring you home again.

No farewell words were spoken,
no time to say goodbye...
you were gone before I knew it,
and only God knows why.

I'm Still Here

Family, please don't mourn for me.
I'm still here, though you don't see.
I'm right by your side each night and day and within your heart I long to stay.

My body is gone but I'm always near.
I'm everything you feel, see or hear.
My spirit is free, but I'll never depart,
as long as you keep me alive in your heart.

I'll never wander out of your sight-
I'm the brightest star on a summer night.
I'll never be beyond your reach-
I'm the warm moist sand when you're at the beach.

I'm the colorful leaves when fall comes around and the pure white snow that blankets the ground.
I'm the beautiful flowers of which you're so fond,
the clear cool water in a quiet pond.

I'm the first bright blossom you'll see in the spring,
the first warm raindrop that April will bring.
I'm the first ray of light when the sun starts to shine,
and you'll see that the face in the moon is mine.

When you start thinking there's no one to love,
you can talk to me through the Lord above you.
I'll whisper my answer through the leaves on the trees,
and you'll feel my presence in the soft summer breeze.

I'm the hot salty tears that flow when you weep
and the beautiful dreams that come while you sleep.
I'm the smile you see on a baby's face.
Just look for me, family,
I'm in all the right places.

Eddy leaves behind his parents, De'Arra Levert and Eddy Bonner, Jr.; his beloved daughter, Ka'lani Hecko Bonner; and his devoted girlfriend, Grace Hecko. He is also survived by his siblings, De'Asia Levert, Mylan Douglas, Vivica Long, Imani Sanders, and Jasiah Bonner; his niece, Beautiful Levert; and his grandparents, Yolanda Langston, Mark Levert, Sr., and Eddy Bonner, Sr. His great-grandparents, Joyce and Joseph Menefree and Lindsay Levert, Jr., also mourn his passing, along with a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends who will forever hold his memory close.

Eddy's life, though far too short, was filled with love, laughter, and an undeniable bond with those he held dear. He will be missed beyond measure, but his spirit will remain in the hearts of all who knew him.

Eddy, age 18, passed away leaving a lifetime of love and memories. Born in Cleveland, Ohio, at Metro Health Hospital to his loving parents, De'Arra Levert and Eddy Bonner, Jr., Eddy brought joy to those around him from the very start.

Eddy attended Cleveland Public Schools through the 10th grade before continuing his education remotely. He found happiness in the simple joys of life—spending time with his family, playing video games, exploring music, and sharpening his cooking skills. Above all, he cherished the moments with his baby girl, Ka'lani Hecko Bonner. Though life was not without its challenges, when Eddy was surrounded by family, he was known for his respect, his warmth, and the smile that could light up a room.

*A life well lived, a soul so kind,
a legacy you leave behind.
Your memory, a precious art,
forever etched within my heart.*
