

Every morning my phone would ring, and on the other end I'd hear, "Hey baby." Those morning phone calls became a part of my daily routine, and their memories I'll cherish forever. You were one of my biggest supporters. You believed in me long before I believed in myself, especially throughout my journey to becoming a nurse. One of your favorite things to say was, "You know I gotta brag on my niece." Thank you for waiting to see me graduate. You had a way of making all of us feel like your favorite ... but you always told me I was your favorite niece, and of course you'd quickly follow it up with, "Don't tell the others," lol. I know you probably told everybody that, but I am keeping that title. You showed love through the little things, especially through your cooking. I will forever cherish that last Sunday with you. You brought us all together, cooked one of my favorites—your pot roast. Auntie Nada. I will never forget your "Hey baby," your laughter, your dimples, your love for Betty Boop, your big cups of ice water, and the way you made everyone around you feel loved. I promise I will continue to make you proud and carry the title you gave me—your nurse—with honor. I find comfort knowing that God called you home because your work here on earth was complete. Well done, thou good and faithful servant. You have fought a good fight, you have finished your course, and you have kept the faith. Now you can rest in God's loving arms. Until we meet again, Auntie Nada, I love you forever. ~Your favorite niece Sadie~

HER LIFE & LEGACY

Ms. Renada Bolton was born on March 29, 1980 in Jacksonville, Florida to Ann Eason and Jessie Bolton. She attended Robert E. Lee High School. She was employed by JMAX Support Services for over 20 years. She was a faithful member of Rehoboth Jacksonville and her strong faith in God was always on display in and out of church. Renada was well known in the community for providing excellent care for people with disabilities. She was not just a caregiver for these individuals; she was their family. Everyone who met her would describe her as one of the most kind-hearted people you would have ever met. When you think of Renada, you can picture that constant smile with those dimples. To know Renada was truly to love her.

She was preceded in death by her father, Jessie Bolton.

Renada is survived by her children: Mariell Glover, Joshua Smith, and Kellya Fletcher; her mother: Ann Eason; her siblings: Sabrena Maxwell, Rodney Maxwell, and Shelly Eason; her nieces: Chrishawnda Griner, Sadie James, and Deborah Denson; her nephews: Tamar Maxwell, Jeremiah Triplett, and Joel Eason; her favorite aunt: Cathy Turner; her bonus children: Zechariah Upson, Dontae West, Jamal Beal, and Samaria Beal; her bonus family: James Upson, Londeshua Dillard, Tonya DeVaughn, Leigh Anne Tompkins, and Dianne McKitrick.

EXPRESSIONS OF Love

The family of Renada Bolton wishes to express our deepest gratitude for all the love and support during this difficult time.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free, I'm following the path God laid for me I took his hand when I heard him call, I turned my back and left it all I could not stay another day, To laugh, to love, to work or play Tasks left undone must stay that way, I've found that peace at the close of day If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah yes, these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow My life's been full, I've savored much, Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch If my time seemed all too brief,

A LIFE WELL LIVED A LEGACY Remembered

Renada, no words that can truly express how much I miss you. My heart aches because I can't pick up the phone and hear your voice. We talked every day about everything, and I never imagined there would be a day when we couldn't have one of our conversations. Thank you for being such a loving daughter. Thank you for your kindness, your affection, your support, and the way you always made me feel loved. One of my favorite memories is when you called me about that funny video of the person praising God in church and their Apple Watch thought they were having a heart attack. You laughed so hard telling me about it. I can still hear your laughter, and it makes me smile through my tears. Even though I cannot see you anymore, I will always carry you in my heart. I will treasure every memory, every laugh, every conversation, and every hug. Nothing can ever take those away. Until we meet again. Love always

Renada was more like a daughter to me, there wasn't a day that we didn't text, early in the morning she would call and ask how are you, after saying I'm fine, she would ask, Nanny are you busy, I could be straight up busy, but I was never too busy to talk to her, she shared many things, we cried together, prayed together, let me tell you something, that girl could pray, we talked so much, on the day she passed we talked that morning and she was supposed to call me back but she succumbed, I loved her so much! I remember telling my sister Renada can't do any wrong in my eyes, well that's because I would minister to her, I took her under my wings for 24 years, she was my right hand in my women ministry, her infectious smile was contagious, her humble spirit was so warm and that dimple was so cute, I will forever hear her voice saying: Nanny are you busy 😊, I know you're smiling and so happy in the arms of Jesus, I will forever love you, missing you ... ~Nanny ❤️~

Dear Nada, I will miss you. I had just seen and talked with you that day. oh, how I wish I would have held on to you. I really feel the little girl within me longing for you and the woman that I have become in disbelief this is one hurt that I don't understand, and I don't think I ever will. I'm trying to be so strong, but I feel so weak make sure you ask God to send me strength because I really need it from him because you did your big one with this one sis. You are at peace and at rest now, no more pain or suffering just peace and love. Watch over us and protect us in the meantime in the spiritual realm as we do it for each other in this realm. I love you my sister get your rest ❤️😭💕 p.s you left a legacy behind and only GREATER IS COMING!!! ~your baby sis, Shelly~

Renada, When I called you answered when I asked you gave. I'm going to miss our daily routine, each morning we travel to work, the talks we had, the laughs we shared. We never said goodbye, it was always love you have a good day. So, tell me what now? How do I say goodbye to a sister, a bond from birth. I love you and I will forever cherish the memories we shared. ~Sabrena~

Auntie Nada! My Betty Boop! Girlll you have outdone yourself. I know you only told Sadie she is the favorite because I lived so far away right.... lol. There is so much I want to say but you know me always the quiet one. But around you conversation was easy and no matter what country or city I lived in you always checked on me and Bella aka "slim thick". You were my plant girl, calling me to try and help you save Toby "Poor Toby sick" is what you would say. Auntie, I have a secret. I had no idea how to save that plant, but that didn't stop me from trying to help you. I got some of that tenacity from you! Even in your passing, you're still providing me comfort. I hear you clearly saying "It's okay baby" I want you here but that would be selfish of me. When it comes to Mariell and Josh You know I got you! Just like I know, you got me up there! I love you beyond forever, in this lifetime and the next. Take your rest. ~Chrishawnda~
