

A Wonderful Mother

God made a wonderful mother,
A mother who never grows old.

He made her smile of the sunshine,
And He molded her heart of pure gold.

In her eyes He placed bright shining stars,
In her cheeks, fair roses you see.

God made that wonderful mother,
And He gave that dear mother to me.

We Love you Mom.

Obituary

Willie Mae Dobbin-Montague was born on May 26, 1947, to the late Jesse C. Dobbin and Beatrice M. Jones-Dobbin. Willie Mae was the youngest girl of six children born to Jesse and Beatrice Dobbin. Willie Mae departed this life on Monday, February 24, 2025 at Johnston Memorial Hospital in Smithfield, NC. Willie Mae was affectionately known as Poopsi, given by her niece, Mary Dobbin-Williams, and Gigi, given by her great grandchildren. Willie Mae graduated from Short Journey School in Johnston County in 1965. Willie Mae attended school in High Point, NC, training as a Data Entry Operator. She held positions during the earlier years after graduating, with Farmer's Market, ITT, and IBM until she retired. Willie Mae's favorite pass time was to cook for her family. Willie Mae loved baking cakes, which was her specialty. She loved baking cakes so much that she started a business where she would take cake orders from individuals and different restaurants around the Raleigh area and make deliveries for them. Willie Mae and her sister Naomi loved cooking family dinners, where Naomi would decorate, and Willie Mae would cook the cakes. Both Willie Mae and Naomi would feed the family with love. Willie Mae loved to cater for special occasions for friends and family. Most important, she loved serving God and working in her church home, Christ Holiness Church #1, where she was a member and served on the Usher Board and singing in the Choir for many years until she was unable to drive to and from church.

Willie Mae loved her family and enjoyed spending time with her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. Spoiling them with hot fresh Krispy Kreme Donuts every chance she could or meeting them at the IHOP for a family breakfast. She will be missed by her family, friends, and those whose lives she touched.

Willie Mae was preceded in death by her husband, Rufus Montague, Jr., her father, Jesse Calvin Dobbin; her mother, Beatrice M. Jones-Dobbin; two sisters, Annie Mae Evans, Naomi Badger and one brother, Joseph M. Dobbin. One grandson, Austin Z. Graham.

Willie Mae leaves to cherish her memory: her children, Jacqueline Williams of Benson, NC; Jewell Graham (Charles) of Clayton, NC; Bruce Williams (Brenda) of Wake Forest, NC. Two brothers, Silas Dobbin (Rosetta) of Raleigh, NC; John B Dobbin (Ellen) of Benson, NC. Willie Mae also leaves eight (8) grandchildren, Lamarr, Ashley, Jalesa, Keinosha, Isaiah, Destiny, Devon, Tavis and one granddaughter in love Kerica Harris, nine (9) great grandchildren, Kamrynn, Karter, Malani, Kyras, Kadynn, Aria, Shai, Mylo and Amani. A Host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
