

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

We, the family of Shimiracle "Dee Dee" Young, would like to extend a heartfelt thank you and so much gratitude to everyone for all of the love and support you have shown to us during this time of sorrow. Nothing that you did, has gone unnoticed. We appreciate you all. We would like to say a special thank you to Shirley Henry and Hattie Sims and the entire staff of Fresenius Kidney Care for all of the loving care that you provided to Dee Dee, a very special thanks to Mrs. Regina James and the First Choice Adult Center Family and First Choice Home Care for all acts of kindness shown during our time of bereavement. Our prayer is that God will continue to richly bless each of you.

LIFE'S REFLECTIONS

Shimiracle Deonna 'Dee Dee' Young

Shimiracle began her journey of life September 03, 1998, to her devoted mother, Diana Young and her loving father, Charlie Gilbert Jr. She was preceded in death by her maternal grandfather James Young Sr. and her paternal grandparents Charlie Gilbert Sr. and Elizabeth Gilbert.

Shimiracle accepted Christ at an early age. She was baptized at New Jerusalem Church of God in Christ, under the leadership of the late Willie Earl Smith.

Shimiracle attended the Yazoo City Public School District until her freshman year. She then enrolled in the Yazoo County School District. This is when she was diagnosed with Lupus. Even through all of her trials with her health issues and with frequent hospital visits, she didn't give up and she didn't quit. She graduated with the Class of 2017.

Shimiracle's desire was to attend college to pursue a degree in Elementary Education and become a teacher. However, God had different plans for her life.

Shimiracle faced so many health issues throughout her life, including renal failure, congestive heart failure, and many other complications due to having Lupus, but she was a person who never complained about what she was going through. Instead, she would still find a way to place a smile on her face even through her pain.

Shimiracle leaves to cherish her memories, her loving and devoted mother, Ms. Diana Young, of Yazoo City, MS; her loving father, Mr. Charlie Gilbert Jr. of Yazoo City, MS; five sisters: Elizabeth Gilbert, Earnestine Young, Karmesia Young and Sophia Young, all of Yazoo City, MS, and Renada Gilbert of Hammond, IN; a very special sister, Marqueta Anderson of Yazoo City, MS; three brothers: Walter Young, Timothy Gilbert and Anthony Gilbert, all of Yazoo City, MS; her maternal grandmother, Ms. Willie Mae Young of Louise, MS; and her great maternal grandmother, Ms. Annie Ruth Cork of Yazoo City, MS. She also leaves a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

TRIBUTES OF LOVE

To My Daughter

I thought of you today, but that is nothing new;
I thought about you yesterday and days before that too.
I think of you in silence, I often speak your name;
All I have are memories, and your picture in a frame.
Your memories are a keepsake, from which I'll never part;
God has you in His arms, I have you in my heart.

Love Mom

A Dad Hurts Too

People don't always see the tears a Dad cries,
His heart is broken too when his beloved child dies.
Her tries to hold it together and tries to be strong,
Even though his whole world's gone wrong,
He holds on to her as her tears fall,
Comforts her throughout it all,
He goes through his day doing what he's supposed to
But a piece of his heart has been ripped away today
So, when he's alone he lets out his pain.
And his tears come down like pouring rain.
His world has crashed in all around him,
All that was bright has gone completely dim,
He searches for answers, but none are to be found
Who offers to help a Dad up when he's hit the ground,
He smiles through his fears,
Struggles trying to hold in his tears.
But what you see on the outside is not always real,
Men don't always show how they really feel,
He feels he has to be strong for the others,
But DADS hurt too, not just the mothers.

Love Dad

Until We Meet Again

A light from my life has gone,
a voice I loved is still,
A place is vacant within my heart
which never can be filled.
A bouquet of beautiful memories
Sprayed with a million tears
I wish that God could have spared you
If just for a few more years.
I hold you close within my heart
And there you will remain
To walk with me throughout my life
Until we meet again.
So rest in peace Dear loved one
And thanks for all you've done
I pray that God has given you
The crown you truly won.
Your vacant place no one can fill
I miss you now and always will.

Your Loving Sister, Lizzy

Missing You Granddaughter

Life would be so wonderful
If you could just have stayed,
Fore when you left
It changed the world
And caused the light to fade.
But gradually as time goes by
The happiness you brought,
Warm and cheers and comforts
Every tearful thought.
Having you to cherish
Filled every day with
A Granddaughter as perfect
As the angels up above.
To lose you was the saddest thing
That ever could occur,
But you left behind the gentleness,
That made you who you were.
You will shine forever
In the memories that we keep,
So, fold our love around your heart,
And rest in Heavenly sleep.

Your Loving Grandmother

In Loving Memory of a Special Sister

Sister, since you passed away
Life just hasn't been the same
I would move Heaven and earth
To have you here with me again.
The time we spent together
Meant the world to me,
Your laughter and your precious smile
As we grew up so happily.
I'm so grateful for the years we had
And the closeness that we shared,
Your heart, so kind and thoughtful
I always knew you truly cared.
You were a wonderful Sister
I miss you no end,
But more than just my family
I've lost a very special friend.
