

PALL BEARERS

Andrew Green	Joey Payton
Johnny Rayford	Kenneth Robin
Rohan Robinson	Kevin Walters

"Earth hath no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal."

The Meaning of His Name

Christian:

The Anointed One, Powerful, Inspirational, Ambitious,
Bright, Highly Intuitive, Uplifting, Charismatic, Independent, and Creative.

Acknowledgement

The family extends heartfelt gratitude to Christian's caregivers and to everyone who offered prayers, meals, visits, and support during his final days.

Repast

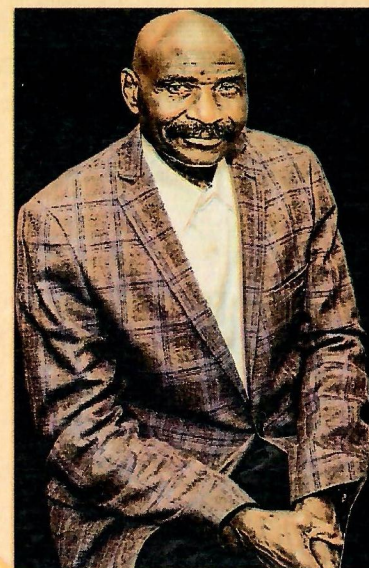

The American Legion
4345 Livingston Road, Indian Head, Maryland 20640

Interment

Washington National Cemetery
4101 Suitland Road, Suitland, Maryland 20746

Special Note: If you cannot join us for the Interment, please feel free to report directly to the American Legion to join the family in fellowship.

CELEBRATING The Life of CHRISTIAN KOFI ATTIGAH

June 25, 1953 – September 7, 2026

Monday, September 21, 2026

Viewing: 9:30 – 11:00 a.m.

Service: 11:00 – 12:00 p.m.

Presider

Elder Thaddaeus Vincent Bryant, Pastor
Grace Church of Christ

Service held at:

Thornton Funeral Home
3439 Livingston Road
Indian Head, Maryland 20640

Journey of Life

Christian Kofi Attigah, age 73, of Fort Washington, Maryland, passed away peacefully on September 7, 2026, surrounded by his loving wife and two sisters-in-law. He was born on June 25, 1953, in Accra, Ghana. Christian was the son of the late Stephen Akakpo Atali Attigah and Grace Ama Ativon. He lived with quiet strength, deep faith, and an unwavering devotion to the people he loved.

Christian graduated from a Bording School with a Senior School Certificate (SSC) in Accra, Ghana. While residing in Ghana, he started a level of training in culinary at the Labadi Beach Hotel. Christian left Ghana and came to the United States in 1998, and started work at the Smoot Lumber Company in Alexandria, Virginia in 1999 for approximately two years. He also worked at T.W. Perry Lumber Company in Springfield, Virginia, where he retired after many years of service in March 2025. Christian grew up in the Catholic faith and later joined the National Church of God in Fort Washington, Maryland. Beyond his education and employment life, Christian stayed to himself and was considered an introvert. He loved working, going to the gym, loved his cars, and loved to eat.

Christian is survived by his devoted wife of 23 years, Tuwanna Glover Attigah; his daughter, Yvonne Heidi Attigah of Accra, Ghana; three sisters, Mary Akakpo, Joyce Atali (Isaac), and Cynthia Attigah; one brother Johnny Akakpo; three sisters-in-law, Deborah Walters, Henrietta Green, and Linda Alexander; a host of nieces and nephews; extended relatives and dear friends; and a best friend David Otwey. He was preceded in death by his father Stephen Akakpo Atali Attigah, and his sister Joyce Attigah.

ORDER OF SERVICE

Musical Prelude

Officiator Evangelist Bridget Peterson

Opening Prayer Minister Eunice Cooper

Scripture Reading

New Testament Minister Kevin Thorpe

Old Testament Sister Tracy Thorpe

Words of Expression Brother David Otwey

A Special Poem and Reading of Cards

Poem of Expressions from his wife Tuwanna, read by Evangelist Bridget Peterson.

Musical Selection Minister Blandin Mozon Jr.

Reflections from Family and Friends (2 minutes)

Reading of the Obituary Evangelist Bridget Peterson

Eulogy Elder Thaddaeus Vincent Bryant, Pastor

Closing Prayer and Benediction

Elder Thaddaeus Vincent Bryant, Pastor