Come Unto Me

God saw Mildred was getting tired
and a cure was not to be.
So He put His loving arms around her and whispered, "Come Unto Me."

With tearful eyes we watched her decline
and saw her fade away.
Although we loved her dearly,
we could not make her stay.

A golden heart has stopped beating hard working hands now rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

Life Reflections

Mildred Cummings Carter was born on October 21, 1940 to the late Golden Sweet Morehead Cummings and John Amos Cummings in Rockingham County, Reidsville, NC. She was the youngest of four children. On Tuesday, July 28, 2026, Mildred left her earthly home to join her husband who passed on Sept. 10, 2025 in their heavenly home.

Mildred, also called “Rat” by her oldest brother and “Carter” by her husband. She graduated from Booker T. Washington High School. She was an avid speller and enjoyed reading, sewing and crocheting. Her proudest work was Easter outfits for her daughter.

Mildred was a stay-at-home mom for a few years until they moved in their new home. She enjoyed working over the years and was employed by Brookside, Bank Note and Sears Roebuck, which she spent the most time as a toy retail specialist.

As a child, she was a member of Chapel Hill United Methodist Church and later joined St. Mariah United Holy Church. During those years, Bishop St. Florence and Pastor Lettie Cohen worshiped together. It was then that she met Linwood Carter (LW). As a result, Mildred and LW married and were blessed with one daughter, Alecia.

Mildred loved her church and was quiet, but a woman of strong faith. Her answer to every problem was prayer. She loved her family deeply and spoiled her one grandson, Ricky.

Mildred was preceded in death by her parents, two sisters, Willette Malloy and Dora Morehead; two brothers, John A. Cummings, Jr. and Elmo Cummings;

She leaves to cherish her memory, her loving daughter, Alecia of the home; her grandson, Ricky Stone, II of Greensboro, NC; She is also remembered by two sisters-in-laws, Marie Cummings and Ruth E. Carter; godson, Greg Cummings; special nieces, Gloria Malloy, Wanda Neal, Helen McNebb, Debra Malloy, Anita Carter, Betty Smith, Cozetta Smith; special nephews, Junior Malloy, Larry Lawson, and James Benton; also, the entire church family of St. Thomas Chapel Pentecostal Holiness Church; a host of others relatives, church family and friends.
