

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Obituary

David Angela Lee Walker was born on July 14, 1981, to Barry and the late Miriam Walker. He spent his early years in the care of his mother, until she became ill and could no longer care for him and his siblings.

At the age of nine, David and his older brother Barry were adopted by the late Mary L. Valentine and her daughter, Mary R. Mangum. Together, they provided him with a loving home filled with joy, laughter, and unwavering support. David often shared how much their love reminded him of how his family used to be.

David was educated in the Elizabeth Public School system and proudly graduated from Elizabeth High School.

David loved to knit, cook and play his African drums. At an early age David joined the New Hope Memorial Baptist Church in Elizabeth, NJ under the leadership of the late Rev. Cornelius Bartley, where he served as an usher, and sung with the Bartley Ensemble.

He is survived by his loving family: his sister Kimberly, brother Rev. Barry K. Walker Sr., sisters Jasmine and Sharon (James), and his adopted mother Mary F. Mangum. David also leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, and cherished loved ones who will forever hold his memory in their hearts.

David's life was a testament to resilience, love, and the strength. He will be deeply missed.
