In Loving Memory Of A Special Husband

The day you left and gained your wings
My heart just broke in two I wish you could have stayed with me
But Heaven needed you
You left me with the memories And love you dearly still No matter how much time goes by You know I always will You were a very special person
With kindness in your heart
And the love we had together Grows stronger now we're apart
I know I cannot bring you back Although I wish it every day
But a piece of me went with you
The day you went away

Acknowledgement

The family of the late Clinton Pettigrew wishes to express their heartfelt gratitude for the outpouring of love, support, and sympathy during this difficult time. Your comforting words, kind gestures, and presence have been a great source of strength for us.

Clinton Pettigrew, a devoted husband, proud veteran, and talented musician, passed away peacefully at the age of 78. Born on March 31, 1948, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, he was the beloved son of the late Gnell White and Harris Duncan.

Clinton grew up in Philadelphia, graduating from Thomas Edison High School. Driven by a desire to learn and build a career, he continued his education at the Community College of Philadelphia, where he mastered the trades of air conditioning and refrigeration.

Shortly after attending college, Clinton answered the call of duty and enlisted in the United States Army. A man of deep courage and dedication, he served his country honorably for several years, which included fighting on the front lines during two tours in the Vietnam War.

Clinton brought his strong work ethic to Keystone Alarms, where he was a valued and dedicated employee for many years before his retirement.

Beyond his professional life and military service, Clinton was a man of diverse passions and immense musical talent. He filled his home and the hearts of his family with music, loving nothing more than sitting down to play the piano and his guitar. He was an avid pinochle player and found great peace and joy listening to the smooth rhythms of jazz.

Clinton was preceded in death by his parents Gnell White and Harris Duncan; his mother-in-law, Clairessa Smith; his brothers, John D., Vincent, Butch, Kevin, and Stanley; his sisters, Elaine and Joyce; and his stepson, Kevin Abney.

He leaves behind a rich legacy of love and beautiful memories to be cherished by his loving wife, Delfonda Williams Pettigrew; his son, Robert; his stepsons: Kuran and Khalif; his stepdaughter, Naja; three sisters: Nita, Brenda, and Angie; two brothers: Mike and Stanley. He was the proud grandfather of eight grandchildren: Armoni, Kamoni, Dayonni, Jamir, Kalif, Najiyah, Zadirah, and Zanirah; and the adoring great-grandfather of four great-grandchildren: Ayden, A'zuraa, Asir, and Aiy'lynn. He will also be deeply missed by a host of familyand lifelong friends.

A Son's Love for His Father

Dad, although you've gone away,Your love will never fade away.You taught me strength, you taught me pride,And gave me love I'll hold inside.

Though I can't see you or hear your voice,Your memory will always be my choice.I'll carry your lessons in all I do,And live each day honoring you.

Forever your son, forever your pride,You'll always be with me, right by my side.Until we meet again someday,I love you, Dad, more than words can say.

Forever your loving son. ❤️

Forever IN OUR Hearts
