Poem to Daddy:
By Kyneisha Aimery

*If I could give you one thing in life,
It would be the ability to see yourself through my eyes.
Only then would you realize
Just how special you are to me.*

*Thank you for believing in me
Even when I couldn't believe in myself.
Thank you for your constant support,
Your endless love,
And for being my everlasting friend.*

*I will always be your little girl,
And you will always be
My greatest hero.*

*Love,
The one who still needs you
Even now, even always.
Your daughter,
Kyneisha Aimery*

Acknowledgement

The family of Michael Anthony Aimery would like to express our deepest gratitude for the outpouring of love, prayers, and support we have received during this difficult time. Your calls, visits, kind words, and acts of compassion have been a great source of comfort and strength.

A special thank you to Pastor Phillip and Sister Josephine Moore, Elder Hershey, Pastor Anthony Taylor, the Laurions and our dear friends and family who have walked alongside us and helped us honor Michael's life in a way that truly reflects the love he shared with others.

We are forever grateful for every gesture of kindness shown to us as we celebrate the life and legacy of our beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother, and friend.

Obituary

Michael Anthony Aimery was born on September 27, 1966, to the union of Sylvester and Doris Aimery in Lansing, Michigan.

Michael accepted Christ at an early age and attended several churches throughout his life, including his father's congregation, pastored by the late Reverend Sylvester L. Aimery. He was educated in the Lansing School District and later attended Business School at Lansing Community College. Michael found joy in many things, but his greatest happiness came from time with his family. He loved playing basketball and other sports, gaming, singing, barbecuing, listening to soulful music, and working with his hands. He also loved playing different instruments, using music to bring the family together. Michael especially treasured time with his grandchildren, cheering at his children's sporting events, and sharing quiet evenings watching movies with his wife.

Michael was known for his warm and joyous spirit, always ready to lift the mood and bring a smile to those around him. He had a natural gift for making others laugh and feel at home, and his playful sense of humor could brighten any room. Michael lived his life with faith, love, and humility, teaching his family the importance of prayer and perseverance. His big heart and ability to bring people together will be deeply missed and forever remembered by everyone who had the blessing of knowing him.

Michael is survived by his loving wife, Torrey Etta Aimery; his children, Anthony Lewis, Michael J. Aimery, Kynisha Aimery, and Jazmynne Aimery; and his cherished grandchildren, Janaia Amos, Michael Jay Aimery, Cordell Miller Jr., Brooklyn Hart, and Londyn Lewis. He is also survived by his siblings, Stephen (Cassandra) Aimery, Sylvia Aimery, Mark Aimery, and Christopher (Indea) Aimery; his brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law, Roy Lewis and David (Tammie) Frazier; and a host of nieces and nephews including Stephen Aimery Jr., Jayde Aimery, Jael Brewer, Josiah Brewer, Xavier Brooks, Austyn Simmons, Khristina Aimery, Christopher Aimery Jr., Anna Hernandez, Jordan Frazier, Devin Frazier, Courtney Frazier, Brianna Frazier, and Andrew Frazier.

Michael's memory will also be cherished by his aunts and uncles, Michael Aimery, James Aimery Jr., Benjamin Jones, and Barbara Jones; his cousins, Shawn Easley, Charlene Easley, Darlene Easley, Deontae Porter, Mesha Porter, Keith Aimery, Margie Aimery, Linda Aimery, Misty Bates-Gonzales, Charlie Jones, and Mike Allen; as well as dear family friends Sean Burnett, Renny Jones, Terry Cannon, Brian Cannon, Jeff Embry, Antoni Bicy, James K. Aimery, Jerry Lewis, and Wayne Deshazer along with many other relatives and friends who loved him dearly.

Your Voice in My Heart

*"Daddy Baybay", "Bugga", Nicknames I'll hear no more,
echoes of you laughing
still linger at my core.*

*The way your smile shined,
the joy you brought each day,
are gifts I'll keep within me
though you've been called away.*

*Your voice may rest in silence,
but your love will never fade,
the names you gave still hold me, in memories we made.*

Love, Daddy Baybay
